Planners Eye 116 Homes In Subdivisions

Two proposed housing subdivisions, totalling 116 homes, were the subject of public hearings held Tuesday night by the planning board.

A 68-home section of the proposed 208 home subdivision surrounding the Andover Country club and the 48-home subdivision called Far Corners, off Pleasant Street, were discussed by residents of the two areas.

A new road, tentatively called Westminster, is planned to run from Canterbury Street to Chandler Circle on the country club property owned by Yvon Cormier.

Residents objected that the new road would create traffic problems on narrow, hilly and winding Chandler, and "ruin the character of the neighborhood."

James T. Robinson, 40 Chandler Circle, said the road is 20 feet, 2 inches wide from the front steps of his house to the gutter on the opposite side, and cannot handle more traffic.

Engineers from Dana Perkins Associates of Lowell, hired by Cormier, rejected suggestions that Westminster be built from Canterbury to Lowell Street, because traffic on Lowell is too great.

Community development director Rhys Kear said the board would have to weigh the traffic flow problems against the character of the neighborhood in making their decision on the subdivision.

There was no formal definitive plan submitted for the section of the subdivision discussed last night.

Homes in that section will be on lots averaging 25,000 square feet, and the homes will sell for $130,000 to $160,000, according to the engineers.

The hearing was continued until the July 24 meeting of the planning board.

Residents near the Far Corners subdivision voiced concern about the capacity of a 12-inch culvert running under Pleasant Street.

They said the culvert cannot now handle drainage from the east side of the street to the west. The ground under the road is being undermined and large holes are appearing on the surface.

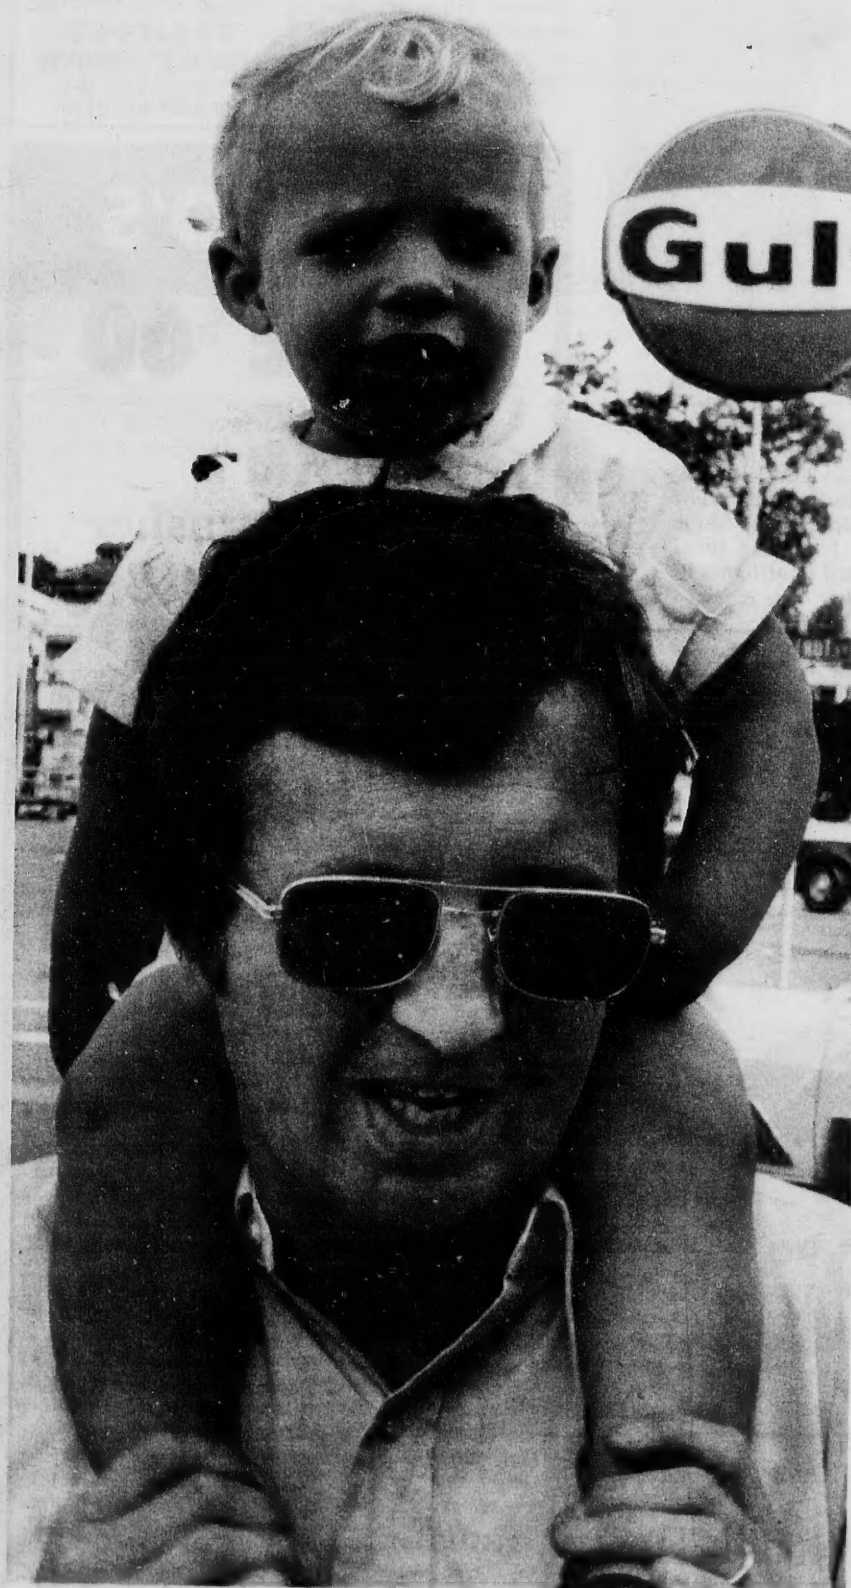

Gerald Rosenberg, 7 Schoolhouse Road, said he wanted the planning board to solve the current drainage problems before approving the subdivision, which might worsen them.

"I don't care if they put 150 houses there as long as I don't have to worry about the water," Rosenberg said.

Engineers representing the developer William H. Konstantinacos, said road and culvert repairs were town problems.

Rhys Kear said he would bring the problem to the attention of the department of public works. Repair or replacement of the culvert might be funded by the $1 million allocated for storm drainage by town meeting.

Further discussion of the Far Corners subdivision will be held July 24.

Alternative Transportation

There's more than one way to beat the gas shortage. Brad Batchelder, 18 months, rides by the closed pumps, enjoying the pleasant weather in downtown Andover aboard dad's shoulders. Actually Bill Batchelder, 17 Burton Farm Drive, was enjoying the Bazaar Days Festivities last Friday. As for the gas shortage, the problem continues, with most Andover gas stations pumping fuel from 7 a.m. until 9:30-10 a.m., or until the daily quota is depleted.

Something For All On The Fourth

(4th Program — Page 17)

Andover's annual Fourth of July celebration will get underway next Wednesday at 10 a.m. at the Playstead and conclude at dusk with a mammoth display of fireworks.

The program, being conducted this year by the Andover Jaycees, will include something to please all members of the family, including a old-fashioned clam bake from 5 to 7 p.m.

Events will get underway with a softball game between the Andover Savings Bank and the Bay/Bank Merrimack Valley at 10 a.m. In addition there will be Good Sports competition held at the playstead during the morning.

Throughout the day there will be rides and amusements, along with the usual popular refreshments, such as hot dogs, cotton candy, soft drinks.

Musical presentations will be given during the afternoon at the bandstand in The Park, with such groups as "Echo Brook," Gay Nineties Revelers," and "Top Priority," featured.

The Clan MacPherson Bagpipe band and a drum and bugle corps are scheduled to give a concert at the Playstead in the evening prior to the fireworks display.

The clam bake will be served from 5 to 7 p.m. and tickets must be obtained in advance. The menu includes steamed clams, a lobster or half chicken barbecued, with all the fixin's for adults at $8.50 per person. The children's menu, at $3.50 does not include a lobster.

Tickets may be obtained prior to the event at the Department of Community Services office in the Stowe school, an y downtown bank, or at the Sports Shop.

Exchanging Andover Greetings

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Lewis of Andover recently returned from a trip to Andover, England, where greetings were exchanged between the two communities. Here, Mayor John Morgan, of Andover, England joins the couple during their visit. A year ago, Lewis hosted a group of visitors, led by C.W. Francis, a Ford dealer, during their visit here and invited the local couple to be their guests this summer. A letter from the local board of selectmen was presented to officials in England by Lewis.

Manager To Make Appointments

Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark told selectmen Monday of his intent to appoint members of the Council on aging and the Community services committee.

He plans to present for formal approval by selectmen Isabella Hurst and Mr. John McAllister to the council on aging.

Mrs. Jerome E. Andrews, Jr., was proposed for membership on the Community Services Committee.

Dorothy Sherrerd, George Fantini and George Ziady will be recommended for reappointment to three year terms on the Industrial Development Commission.

Town Budget Available For Inspection

The Town of Andover has made available for public inspection a summary of the enacted July 1, 1979 to June 30, 1980 Town budget including the intended use of revenue sharing funds.

Copies of this summary and additional budget detail are available for public inspection at the Department of Finance and Budget, Andover Town Hall, Monday through Friday between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Copies are also available at the Memorial Hall Library during its normal working hours.

Day In Park July 17 At Log Cabin

The annual Senior Citizens' Day in the Park sponsored by the Elder Affairs Division of the Andover Department of Community Services will be held Tuesday, July 17. Due to the fire at the Rec Park Lodge, this year's celebration will take place from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Phillips Academy Bird Sanctuary on Highland Road. Activities planned for the day include games, a barbeque, a 45's Tournament, bingo, line dancing and musical entertainment performed by Phillips Academy students. Tickets for this annual event cost $1 and are now on sale at the Andover Senior Citizens' Center. Transportation is available — please make reservation when you purchase your tickets.

Shannon Introduces New Service

Congressman James M. Shannon reports that when his Mobile Office visits Andover on Thursday, June 28, a new program of community participation will be in effect; a representative of the Council on Aging will be present to answer questions, and to distribute the Council's Newsletter, according to Dorothy Winn, director of elderly affairs.

"We are launching an expanded community partnership, utilizing Congressional Mobile Office space in the service of community public interest projects," Shannon said. "I want to encourage citizen groups having such projects to contact my District office to arrange to use this space when the Mobile Office visits the community: 459-0101, 862-1847, 683-5313."

The Mobile Office will be parked at the Town Hall. Please note that this is a change from the schedule previously published. The hours are from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The Mobile Office is designed to supplement the office in Lowell at 352 Merrimack St., and the Lawrence office at 11 Lawrence St. It is one facet of the Shannon Outreach program which also includes Open Forum Town Meetings in every community, Elderly Outreach visits, and special events or conferences.

Licenses Transferred

Selectmen Monday night approved the transfer of licenses for operation of the Andover Country Club. Cormier-Andover, Inc., new owners of the property, was granted an innholder's license and an innholders all-alcoholic beverage license. Constance M. Caputo, 218 Haggetts Pond Road was designated as manager.

Combined Classes To Meet Austerity

The possibility of combining classes to reduce student-teacher ratios may become more attractive than increasing the number of teachers as school budgets become more austere, Assistant Supt. Charles Mitsakos told the school committee last Tuesday night.

"Many people say, 'Hire another teacher.' It just ain't going to be that easy," he said.

School committeeman Joseph Finn raised the question of combining classes during a discussion of elementary school staffing. He wanted to know if combining students from two grades in one classroom would be possible if budgetary or classroom constraints prevented increasing the number of classes at an overcrowded grade level.

"What would be the reaction time in the system for the combination of grades?" he asked.

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert said about two months. It would take that long to prepare a teacher to teach the combined class and to decide what students would be in it.

The method is already being used in the Shawsheen School, with a regular second grade, a regular third grade and one combined second and third grade. Those classes contain 25, 23 and 22 students, respectively.

Mitsakos said students are chosen for a combined class according to their abilities as measured by standard reading and mathematics exams. Students in different grades but of similar abilities would be placed in the combined class.

Seifert said that in a typical fourth grade, test scores for reading and math ability might range from the first-grade level to the seventh.

Mitsakos said this type of combining has been done in Andover in the past, and is a standard remedy for overcrowded classrooms in other communities.

Combining classes had not been used in Andover for several years, he said, but it had worked well this year in Shawsheen.

'64 Reunion

The Andover High School Class of 1964 is planning their 15th Reunion on Aug. 18, at the Andover Country Club. Anyone interested please call Mrs. James Brent or Mrs. John Provosoli.

Hay Scales Aids CLASS

The Hay Scales Exchange of North Andover presented a check in the amount of $5,000 to CLASS.

The Hay Scales Exchange is a non-profit organization dedicated to helping people to help themselves by providing a shop in which people may place their handicrafts on consignment.

This year has been very successful due to the hours of time contributed by volunteers, and the quality of the hand work sold at the shop.

With the focus being on mental health this year, the Hay Scales has chosen CLASS, an organization devoted to helping retarded adults, with their work in the community.

The Hay Scales officers express thanks to devoted volunteers, shopkeepers, gifted consignors, and patrons for making it possible for the Hay Scales to be actively involved with the community in helping people to help themselves.

New School Fiscal Policy Is Examined

A fiscal policy which spells out how the school budget will be prepared and presented to town meeting was considered by the school committee last Tuesday.

The policy, presented in rough draft, does not provide for any dramatic changes in the way things are already done, but it does set down in writing what the budget will include.

When town meeting is asked to approve the school budget, it will still see only two line items, salary and total expenses, but additional information will be included in the FinCom report.

That report will contain five specific pieces of information: enrollment by academic level; total number of full-time teachers equivalents at each academic level; per pupil costs; expenses by line item as listed on state reports; and budgeted expenses by line item.

This information for the two previous fiscal years, and estimates for the current year, will be provided.

After town meeting, the school administration will prepare a detailed budget. The school committee will compare that budget to quarterly reports of actual spending.

The quarterly reports will be in a program budgeting format, and will be made possible by having the school system's accounting computerized. Under program budgeting, "every nickel" budgeted for a program is accounted for, Assistant Supt. Charles Mitsakos said yesterday.

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert objected to the suggested guideline which called for school committee approval of all transfers of funds within the budget. Such transfers are numerous and would take up a great deal of the committee's time, he said.

"It may be deeper than the School Committee may want to go," he said.

Committeeman Casimir Kolaski suggested that only "transfers over a substantial amount" be approved by the committee to reduce the number of approvals to be made.

The committee accepted the suggestion, and Chairman Elaine Viehmann said she would revise the policy statement before bringing it up for first approval.

School Assistance

Sr. Rita Heywood, S.N.D., principal of St. Augustine's school received check from Mrs. Yvette Sirois, president of the school guild. The check represented proceeds from various fund raising activities held by the guild during the past year.

Elementary School Happenings

Mr. Charles Donovan is a 5th grade teacher at West Elementary School. He has been teaching classes at West for twelve years and has taught 4th, 5th and 6th graders. He has taught physical education for four years at all the Andover schools, but he has never taught out of town.

Mr. Donovan says that he likes being a teacher because he sees young boys and girls become aware of their capabilities. He told me that the subject he teaches best is science (actually, I don't think he does that bad in social studies, either).

In his spare time, Mr. Donovan coaches a hockey team and swims and fishes for fun. He likes spending time with his family and doing carpentry-type things around the house.

I really had a lot of fun interviewing Mr. Donovan and he said that he enjoyed being interviewed. He sure is an interesting person.

I asked some people what some excuses for forgetting their homework were. Amy Moynihan said, "Well, my most common excuse is that I forgot my book!" Other reasons were as follows: I forgot it in my bedroom; my paper blew away; my mother threw it in the garbage.

There are many other reasons besides these. Sometimes excuses are unbelievable, like for instance: my dog at it — I ripped it up — it landed in the mud.

Ask yourself what are some of your reasons for forgetting your homework.

Art Exhibit

I recently visited the West Elementary Art Exhibit at the Andover Savings Bank. The exhibit featured work from Mrs. Synthia Weiss' art classes. It went from April 21 to 27. The artwork was done by West children in kindergarten through sixth grade.

The children who had their works displayed were Jane Barker, Claire Piazza, Nicole LeBlanc, and Lori Francese with quilted pictures; Warren Crossfield, Cheryl Coutiere, and Vicki Goldman with weavings; James Nelson and Robert Hunter with etchings; Austin Henderson, Robert Barnard, and Steven Wu with pastels; Erik Tupper, Dana Whitney, Jim Sullivan, and Lee Webster with crayons; Jenny Wu, Dino Martone, Kurt Lengerman, and Kristen Cutler with cut paper; Liz Hart and Garth MacMurry with pencil; Pam Nicastro, Ann Abele, and Sinzia Struthers with maps; and John Williams, Andrew Van Der Zee and Jim Nelson with magic marker and paint.

I think that art is a good way for kids to

Art Guild Presents Scholarships

The Andovers Artists Guild presented their Ruth Hutton Memorial Scholarship Award, to four outstanding students of Andover and North Andover High Schools.

Elenore J. Alickman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Alickman of 3 Yardley Drive, Andover will attend the Visual and Performing Art School at Syracuse University in the fall, and plans to major in illustration. During her high school years, Elenore received recognition for "Excellence in drawing and painting" and participated in such activities as homecoming committee, yearbook staff, and manager of basketball and softball teams.

Lynn Ellen Evangelos, daughter of Mr.

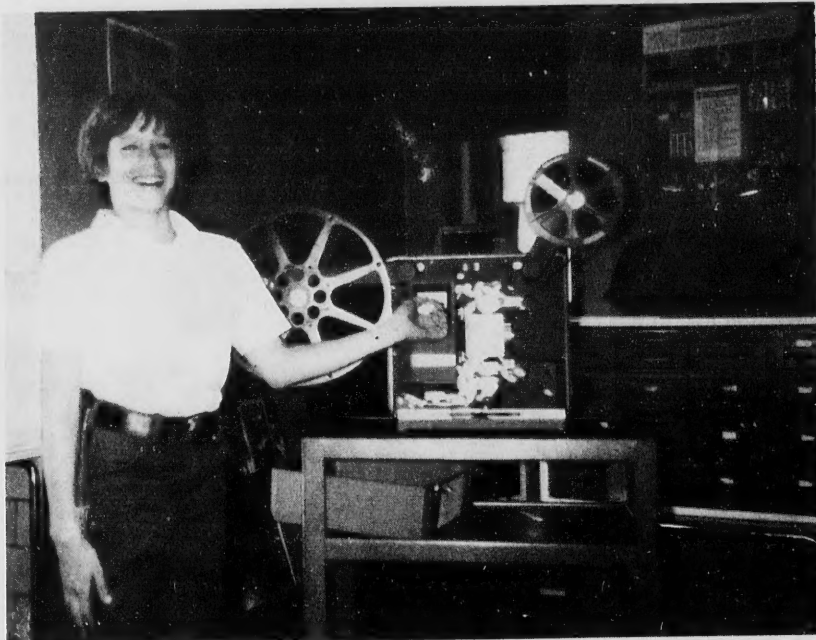

and Mrs. Nicholas Evangelos of 126 Prescott Street, North Andover, will attend Framingham State College. Earlier this year, Lynn took a first prize award from the Andovers Artists Guild High School Art Competition. She also received a Certificate of Merit from the Boston Globe for her work in the State of Massachusetts Regional Exhibition, as well as a Medal of Excellence in Art from North Andover High School. Lynn is an honor student with interests in athletics, music, and working with children.

Stephen Dean, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Dean of 31 Johnson Circle, North Andover, also chosen by the Andovers Artists Guild for his outstanding artwork, plans to attend the Art Institute in Boston, and hopes to major in illustration. His other awards include a scholarship from the St. Michael's Guild, and the Boston Globe Certificate of Merit. His other interests include music, movies, and drawing people.

Vincent R. Avalos, son of Mrs. Erlinda

Parks and Mr. Hector Avalos, is the fourth recipient to the award. During high school Vincent was active in football, peer counseling, the Outing Club and Yearbook. He will also attend the Art Institute of Boston where he will major in illustration. Besides painting, Vincent enjoys hiking, climbing, dancing and Astronomy.

Outstanding Citizen

The Doherty School Media Center has an outstanding citizen among its student helpers. The William A. Doherty award for Outstanding School Citizenship has been awarded to sixth grader, Timothy Waitkevitch. Since Timmy's outstanding qualities of dependability and reliability have been recognized by the whole school, he was unanimously selected for this award.

After School Math

On Tuesdays and Thursdays, Mrs. Durant, a fifth grade teacher at the Sanborn School, gives children a half hour after school to catch up in the I.M.S. program.

In I.M.S., the pupils take pre-tests and post-tests. If a pupil fails a skill in a pre or post test, he has to do some practice sheets. These sheets teach him how to do what he didn't understand before.

If the pupil still doesn't understand something after he did the skill sheets, then the teacher explains it in a simpler way.

"It is really fun," a pupil said.

"It seems like I get more done after school, than during school," another pupil said.

Robert Mattedi

Social Studies Fair

All the sixth graders at the West

Elementary School held a social studies fair.

The students did reports on a country, which they picked out of a box. After the written report they do a project to go with the report.

The Track Meet

On Tuesday, May 22, all the schools in Andover held an inter-school track meet at the lovely field behind the West Junior High School. The 5th and 6th graders were bused to the junior high school in the morning and back to their schools for lunch.

The meet was divided into two parts — track events and field events. The field events were running long jump, standing broad jump, discus, shot put, and high jump. The track events were 50-yard dash, 60-yard dash, 75-yard dash, 100-yard dash, hurdles, relays, 220-yard run, 440-yard run, 600-yard run and 880-yard run.

None of the awards were given on the field. At West they were not given until May 24th. The ribbons ranged from 1st place to 6th place.

I feel that the meet was a very good opportunity for students to compete and to realize their physical capabilities. I would like to thank Mr. Iworsley, Miss Rozzi, and all the other gym teachers in Andover for their time and effort put into making the track meet possible.

Behind The Scenes

The Boston Ballet's Company Too! group of 19 young dancers recently performed for Andover's 480 sixth graders. On hand for a visit backstage were Malden Cooperative Bank at Andover President Edward R. Marston, center, and Andover Public Schools Assistant Superintendent Charles Mitsakos, right, who took time to assist one dancer with his makeup, just prior to the performance. Following each one-hour performance, the dancers visited the sixth grade classrooms as part of an overall "day in residence" program. This total experience was sponsored by the Malden Cooperative Bank at Andover, in conjunction with its ongoing "Cultural Enrichment" program for the town's young people.

Among some primitive peoples it was considered bad luck to refer to soldiers by name. They were spoken of as birds instead.

Solar Energy

Solar energy may provide Israel with eight to 15 percent of its needs by the 1990s. Saltwater solar ponds collect and store heat on the bottom where temperatures approach the boiling point, Massachusetts Audubon says. One pond fuels a 30-kilowatt electric plant; another provides power for a resort hotel.

Awarded Honorary Doctorate

Dr. S. Richardson Hill, Jr., president of The University of Alabama in Birmingham, was awarded an honorary doctor of science degree during Wake Forest University's recent commencement exercises.

A graduate of Duke University, Dr. Hill earned his M.D. degree at Wake Forest's Bowman Gray School of Medicine in 1946. He also holds an honorary doctor of science degree from UAB.

UAB's president has been associated with the medical school in Birmingham since 1954 when it was the Medical College of Alabama. In addition to his present position, Dr. Hill is director of the University of Alabama System Medical Education Program. The System includes the University of Alabama School of Medicine at UAB, the School of Primary Medical Care at the University of Alabama in Huntsville, and the College of Community Health Sciences at the University of Alabama (Tuscaloosa).

Dr. Hill is a member of numerous professional associations such as the American Medical Association, the American Association of University Administrators, and the Society for Experimental Biology and Medicine.

He is a Fellow of such prestigious organizations as the New York Academy of Sciences, the Royal Society of Medicine, and the American College of Physicians.

Dr. Hill is married to the former Janet Redmen of Andover, and they have four children: Susan Dustin Hill; Samuel Richardson Hill, III; Elizabeth Hamilton Hill; and Margaret Hanes Hill.

Machado, Marcoux In Games

Thomas Machado of 5 Binney St. and Donald Marcoux of 4 Launching Road competed Sunday in the first annual Special Field Games for the mentally and physically handicapped at the Methuen High School Field.

The Western Electric Merrimack Valley Work Chapter, Telephone Pioneers of America, the Bon Secours Hospital Employees Association, and various local businesses and service clubs sponsored the Special Field Games for 26 total participants aged 4-43.

"This is a pilot program to create a greater understanding by the general public of the needs of handicapped citizens," says Bob Gagnon, chairman of the games. "At the same time, it offers them the opportunity to experience the pride and satisfaction that comes through competition."

"We hope to generate sufficient interest within other service organizations," he added. "With their help, the games may be expanded in the future to include other cities and towns." Soccer ball and football kicks, 25, 50, and 100 yard dashes, tennis ball, softball, and frisbee tosses, an obstacle course, a race, relay, and obstacle course for wheelchair contestants, a 300 yard walk, a ball-in-box race, and a turtle-pull race were among the 18 track and field events at the games.

Winners placing first, second, and third received gold, red, and white ribbons respectively. All participants received blue ribbons, pennants, tee shirts, and pens.

Lunch, donated by the Methuen Lions Club, a magic show featuring magician Vin Luminello, and the awards ceremony followed the contests.

Edward B. Elmer

To Enter Harvard Medical

At the Johns Hopkins University's 103rd commencement exercises, held at Baltimore on May 31, Edward Burns Elmer was awarded the Bachelor of Arts degree with general (university) honors and departmental honors in his major field of chemistry.

Elmer, a Merit Scholarship finalist and 1976 cum laude graduate of Phillips Academy, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Elmer (Cathleen Burns) of the Rose Cottage, 2 Chestnut Street, Andover.

At graduation, Elmer, who had been elected to Phi Beta Kappa in his junior year, ranked fifth in a class of 500 at Hopkins' Faculty of Arts and Sciences. During his senior year, he worked at the John Hopkins Medical School as chief assistant in the Cardiac Surgical Research Laboratory, which is conducting experiments in myocardial preservation.

Elmer, whose undergraduate sports were swimming and racquet ball, is a licensed radio operator, who for three years had a weekly disc jockey show on WJHU-FM, Baltimore. After a summer in Europe, Elmer will enter Harvard Medical School.

Paige Whitley

Receives Exchange Club Honors

Paige Whitley, a senior at Andover High school, has been selected as "Youth of the Year" by the Andover Exchange Club. Miss Whitley will be honored at the club's June 19 meeting at the Lanam Club.

In addition to receiving recognition locally, Miss Whitley will now compete against fellow winners for New England honors. If she should win the New England contest, she would then be eligible for the National Exchange Club "Youth of the Year" award to be presented in July in St. Louis.

The local winner was selected from among entrants from Andover High school, North Andover High school and Greater Lawrence Voke.

Miss Whitley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Whitley, 4 Virginia Road, Andover, will be attending school at Georgetown University this fall majoring in language and foreign relations.

In Program

Chet Wiezbowski, 17 Linda Road, Andover, production general supervisor, Container Corporation of America, Wakefield, completed the Unit I course in Wittenberg University's Management Development Program.

The series of five-day on-campus courses are designed to strengthen the management competency and provide new insights into the management functions of supervisory personnel in industry.

DISCOVER DeScenza

diamond merchant and jeweler since 1915

There's More to the Perfection of a Diamond Than "Flawless"

A flawless diamond is not necessarily the best diamond one can buy. At DeScenza we'll show you the method of scaling the perfection or "clarity" of a diamond — the natural grains and inclusions in a stone, under 10 power magnification.

A flawless diamond very rarely has fine color and beautifully proportioned cut, simply because it is extremely rare to find a perfect diamond in all aspects. Because of this a one carat, "perfect" gem diamond, that a museum or collector would buy, costs $25,000.

At DeScenza's we will teach you what one should look for in a diamond. To properly see the quality of a diamond none of our stones are mounted before you select your stone. A stone with some small inclusion seen under 10 power magnification is common, because nature is rarely perfect. The color and cut is what gives a diamond its outward beauty that you see.

Building Group Tested

"Is it prudent to retain an architectural firm to do an architectural study when they may financially gain from the study?"

Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark asked the school building committee that last Thursday, and they said yes, if the firm is Perly F. Gilbert Associates.

Committee chairman Kenneth Gropper said, "It is a german question for the uninitiated and the suspicious. Historically, the firm has come back with alternatives that are less expensive than the one we suggest."

"This architectural firm has done work far and beyond what is called for in the contract," Gropper said, "and has not nickel and dimed us to death."

Clark said he had no concerns about the firm's honesty, he just wanted to make sure the committee was prepared to answer the question in case it came up.

Perly F. Gilbert has done comprehensive school studies in Ayer, Acton, Boxboro, Stoughton, Holliston and Brockton, and have designed about 280 facilities, according to Clark.

In Ayer, Clark said, the firm planned a $1 million renovation of the schools instead of designing a $4 million middle school as they were asked.

"That's an impressive record we should benefit from," said Clark. Perly F. Gilbert has been retained to develop design alternatives for the Andover school building project, and will design the final version of whatever alternative the town votes for.

Winchester Organist In Concert

The fifth organ recital in the summer series at the Methuen Memorial Music Hall on July 4th, Wednesday evening at 8:30 will present Michael Ambrose, organist in Winchester.

Michael Ambrose is a 1979 graduate of the University of Lowell College of Music, and is organist at the First Baptist Church in Winchester. As a student of John Skelton, he received the bachelor of applied music degree with highest honors in organ performance. He played for the Organ Historical Society, at their recent annual convention, and was a finalist in the 1977 Boston Chapter organ competition. In September, he will begin graduate study under John Skelton at the University of Lowell for the Master of Applied Music degree in organ. This is his first appearance at Methuen.

On next Wednesday, July 11, Max B. Miller of Boston University will return to the Hall.

Theater Party Set For Salem

On Thursday, evening, July 12, the Bon Secours Hospital Auxiliary will sponsor its Second Annual Theatre Party at a performance of "Mame" by the Town and Country Players, at the Town and Country Theater, Salem, N.H.

Proceeds from this benefit performance will go directly to the auxiliary's support of hospital and patient programs.

Chairman and co-chairman of the event, Mrs. Anthony J. Ippolito, and Mrs. Rose M. DiPaolo, are enthusiastic about the an-icipated success of the evening's program.

"It's a marvelous musical for a summer night," said Mrs. Ippolito, "lavish sets and beautiful costumes, coupled with an excellent story and music, should make for a very pleasant evening."

Tickets can be obtained from any of the hospital's auxiliary board members, and can be exchanged for reserve seats after 6 p.m. on the night of the performance.

Curtain time is 8:15 p.m. Refreshments will be served after the performance.

Mrs. Robert N. Steck

Steck - Bullard

Sarah Bell Bullard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Greenleaf Bullard of Andover, was married June 23 in Nonquitt, to Robert Neille Steck, son of Mrs. Charlotte Steck of San Antonio, Texas and the late Oscar Francis Steck.

Rev. Maurice Cobb performed the garden ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a gown of cream colored net and lace with a tiered skirt of rose point lace. A headress of the same lace fastened her long net veil and she carried roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Pamela Bullard of Andover, was maid of honor for her sister, and the bridesmaids were Ms. Margaret L. Parson of Andover, and Ms. Karla Knight of Belmont. They wore lilac and pink skirts with matching blouses.

Eric Olson of Cambridge, was the best man, and the ushers were Lyman G. Bullard Jr. and William R. Bullard II, of Andover.

Mrs. Steck, a psychiatric social worker at the Newton-Wellesley Hospital, was graduated from Trinity College in Hartford, and received a master's in social work from Boston University. Her father is president of Greenleaf Management Associates in Waltham.

Mrs. Steck is a granddaughter of Mrs. John C. Bell, Jr. of Bryn Mawr, Pa. and the late Justice Bell of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, and of Mrs. Robert Vickery of Chestnut Hill, and the late William R. Bullard.

Steck, an alumnus of the University of Texas, received a Master of Philosophy from Yale University and attended Harvard University as a Rockefeller Fellow. He is a public relations and public affairs consultant.

The couple will live in Newton Upper Falls.

Once 'n Done™ No-Rinse Floor Cleaner

Specifically formulated for Armstrong no-wax floors.

No rinsing.

There's no need for a separate time-consuming rinsing step every time your floor is washed. Armstrong Once 'n Done cleans without rinsing.

No residue.

Unlike ordinary cleaners*, Once 'n Done leaves no dulling dirt-catching film on the floor. You save time and effort, and your Armstrong no-wax floor is left shining its brightest.

*Often general-purpose detergent directions will claim that rinsing is not necessary. While this may be true on other surfaces, any detergent film left on a floor will hold tracked-in dirt and dull the natural shine.

Godspell — July 2

The Monday night movie special on July 2 will feature "Godspell", a jubilant film version of the smashingly successful stage musical. The material is larger than life and so is the visual approach; the story unfolds with both skillful use of acting and pantomime.

The Monday night movie program at Central Park begins at dusk and lasts for approximately 2 hours. In the event of rain the movie will be shown on Tuesday evening.

Dance Classes

Disco Dancing I and Ballroom Dancing will not begin until the week of Tuesday, July 10 and Thursday, July 12 respectively.

Registrations for these classes will continue to be accepted at the Community Services office.

The following Dance Classes have been cancelled due to a small enrollment: Fun Dances, Disco Dance II, Disco Dancing-Youth Class.

Hampton Bus Shuttle

The bus shuttle to Hampton Beach is now operating every Tuesday and Thursday. Buses leave at 9 a.m. from the East Junior High School parking lot and return at about 4 p.m. A maximum of two buses will be provided for each trip. A minimum of thirty individuals must sign up before a bus will be provided. All reservations are handled on a first come, first serve basis. Cost of a trip is $2.00 per person.

Evening Bike Trips

Supervised weekly bike trips through and around the Town of Andover will begin this Thursday evening at 6:30 p.m. David Williams and John Bently will be meeting trip participants at the East Junior High School parking lot in order to lead them on tours of varied lengths and difficulty during the course of the summer.

A bowling ball speeding over 230 feet (70.1 meters) of roller coaster track in the new Energy exhibit at Boston's Museum of Science demonstrates that energy cannot be created or destroyed — only changed from one form to another. The ball's energy is transferred to various devices along the track with a measurable loss, which Museum visitors may calculate.

Vacation Bible School To Be Held

The Greater Lawrence Council of Churches is now accepting registrations for the Vacation Bible School program to be held in Andover. The program, open to children entering grades K-6 in the fall, will be held Monday through Friday, July 9 to 20 at Free Christian Church on Elm Street from 9 a.m. to noon.

Coordinating the program is Faith Johnson, director of Christian Education at West Parish Church. This year's ecumenical program "Sharing God's Gifts" (Augsburg Press) presents a creative, exciting, and challenging format in Christian Education including experiences of teaching, arts & crafts, recreation, worship, music and refreshments.

The program is a community effort of Andover churches and the Greater Lawrence Council of Churches. For more information contact Faith Johnson or Cynthia Haefling.

Memorial Hall Library

Vacation Ideas On One Tank Of Gas-

Has the gas situation forced you to change your vacation plans? Don't despair. Memorial Hall Library has a new display on interesting places to go and things to see nearby in Massachusetts. You can beach it, climb it, canoe it, fish it. Massachusetts has a rich historical heritage and a lively cultural heritage. And it abounds with sports. So stop by and let Memorial Hall Library help you to "see Massachusetts."

Joyce Franklin - July Artist
The oil paintings of Joyce Franklin of North Andover will be on display at Memorial Hall Library throughout the month of July. Mrs. Franklin, who is a past president of the Lynnfield Library and the Lynnfield Art Guild, has won many awards in shows throughout New England. A graduate of Simmons College, Mrs. Franklin has had several one woman shows and her paintings are in private collections from New England to Texas and California.

Children's Room News By Bridget Bennett

For children who may be looking for suggestions for summer reading, we have prepared two reading lists one for 2 - 4 Graders and one for 4 - 6 Graders. These lists are now available in the Children's Room, as are fliers for our summer programs, which will be starting the week following the Fourth of July.

Memorial Hall Library will be closed all day, Wednesday, July 4.

For Those Of Us Who Are Older

By Janet D. Lake

The Wednesday afternoon blood pressure clinics will continue throughout the summer at The Haven, staffed by Mary Hamilton and Sally Healy. They will be there from 2 to 3 p.m. and you do not need an appointment. Just stop by. They will be happy to talk to you as well as check your blood pressure.

The next session of the Tuesday Mini-Clinics will also be at the Haven July 3 from 2 to 4 p.m., patients seen by appointment only. To make an appointment you must call the Andover Board of Health - NOT The Haven.

The Haven Associates have a new slate of officers elected at the annual meeting in June. President is Joseph Odum; vice-President-Joseph Smethurst; Secretary-Agnes Gallagher; Treasurer-Eleanor McNamara; Directors-Robert Coombs and Elsie Mowat for two years and Hazel Higgenbotham for one year.

This afternoon you can spend a happy afternoon with TV nostalgia - a program at The Haven at 2 p.m. It will include many clips from your favorite old TV programs - Uncle Miltie, Liberace, I Remember Mama, and many others. This afternoon-Thursday, June 28 at 2 p.m. at The Haven.

The next in the Monday afternoon Film series is "Godspell." July 2 at 1:30 at The Haven.

The Haven will be closed all day July Fourth for Independence Day. The staff heartily recommends you attend the special town events planned for that day.

The next birthday party - for those who were born in July - will be July 11 at 2 p.m.

There is still room for those wanting to go to Portsmouth July 12. This should be a most interesting day and includes a visit to Strawberry Banke with lunch at Yolen's followed by a cruise to the Isles of Shoals off the New Hampshire coast...and all for $16 all inclusive.

And do mark July 17 on your calendar

FREE STANDING
FURNITURE OR A
BUILT-IN?

When you're thinking about a wall unit of any kind, or a bookcase, it's good to consider advantages of free standing units as opposed to built-ins for many worthwhile reasons.

Now, we're not saying that built-ins aren't good, too, but free standing units do give you so much. For one thing, because they are not built-in they can be put on different walls whenever you decide to re-decorate or change a room around.

The same applies if you ever move. Built-in shelves usually have to be left behind, but cabinets, bookcases and other wall units can go with you and be used in your new home.

Not only do you have the great versatility with free standing units, but there are so many attractive ones today that are really beautiful pieces of furniture.

Etagers, bookcases and wall units are available — not only to hold and display the things you want them to — but also to "stand on their own" decoratively. And such pieces can be used not only against a wall, but many may also be used, if you wish, as room or area dividers away from the walls. It all adds up to a way of decorating you might consider, and we'll be happy to help you.

Reports To Facilitate School Design

THE TOWNSMAN, JUNE 28, 1979

By Tim Greene

The ANDOVER TOWNSMAN

JUNE 28, 1979

The school building committee made plans last Thursday to get three reports which architects need to start design work on the Andover school building project.

The architectural firm, Perly F. Gilbert Associates, needs a student population projection, an assessment of the school buildings now owned by the town and an educational policy statement of what will be taught in the schools and how it will be taught.

The Merrimack Valley Planning Commission will provide the student population projection, Perly F. Gilbert has been retained to perform the building assessment and the school committee has to make the educational policy statement.

The architects need the information to determine how many students to plan for, what kinds of classrooms to design and what kinds of classrooms are already available in existing buildings.

In this way they can "make better use of existing facilities" and minimize new construction, according to Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark.

The MVPC is already at work on a population and growth study of Andover. The student population projection will be a study of that project.

Clark said the MVPC was chosen so the two studies would be based on "common assumptions." The planning of the town and the planning of the schools should then be integrated.

The MVPC will also charge less for the service than a commercial firm might, and any commercial firm would have to come to the MVPC anyway for population data.

The study will be an expansion of the May 1979 student population projection done by Dr. David Ahouse, Dr. Joseph Baglio and Dr. Francis Griggs. Their study did not take into account the migration effect which residential and industrial development has had in the last year, Clark said.

Perly F. Gilbert will do the assessment of buildings in the school system, Clark said, because they are already familiar with them. They have been working on the school building project for the last year.

They should be able to complete the assessment more quickly and economically than another firm, Clark said.

The educational policy statement must come from the school committee, and tell the architects what kinds of courses will be taught and what kinds of classrooms they will be taught in.

Classrooms can be designed for lectures, laboratories or for small discussion groups or for combinations. When the school committee says what it needs, the architects can design it.

The architects are already familiar with the high school and junior high school requirements, Clark said, because of their work on East Junior High. Now they are particularly interested in the classroom requirements for the elementary grades.

Because of declining enrollment, it may become possible to turn an elementary school into a junior high, Clark said.

The MVPC study should be ready in four to six weeks, and the architectural assessment by Sept. 1. If the school committee has reported on their educational program by then, the architects could go ahead with the design of different organizational alternatives.

These alternatives determine how many grades will be in the elementary, junior high and high schools. Alternatives being considered are: 5-3-4, 4-4-4, 6-3-3 and 6-2-4.

Town meeting charged the school building committee with coming up with a recommendation for the building project by October town meeting.

At town meeting, their responsibilities were expanded from considering the fate of East Junior High, West Junior High renovations, and an auditorium for Andover High. They now must present a plan which incorporates all of these projects and which will best use those schools already built.

The town can apply to the School Building Assistance Bureau of the state to fund the studies being done for the building project.

Cost of developing the architectural alternatives will be between $30,000 and $50,000, depending on how many alternatives are explored.

New Recycling Plan To Begin On Monday

By Robert E. Finneran
Editor

Andover's new recycling program will get underway next week, with the non-profit organization assisting a new contractor, Miller Disposal, Inc. of Bedford.

There will be some modifications in the program to make the product more marketable and obtain the best financial return for the town.

And, if residents happen to see ladies aboard the contractor's truck, it's not a women's lib bit, it's members of the newly-formed corporation aiding in the establishment of routes.

The corporation formally organized at a meeting at the library Tuesday night, is an outgrowth of the recycling committee which has assisted the program over the past six years. With the threatened halt of the program due to an inability to finance it through funds available, the group decided on the non-profit corporation as an answer.

At the Tuesday night meeting Virginia Cole was elected president, Peggy Hutchins, vice president; Tina Girdwood, treasurer and Peggy Corbett, clerk. Directors include Margaret Pustell, Elaine Katz, Lolli Sunberg, Lyn Beattie, Betty Patterson, Leslie Frost and Russell Baker.

The modifications in the new program call for the elimination of tin cans. It is recommended, however, that aluminum cans and clean foil be saved, once the corporation hopes to have a receptacle for deposit of such material as soon as a place can be found.

Another change involved colored glass, which now should be separated, green in one bag and brown in another. This affords options on better prices and more places to sell. Grocery bags are suitable containers for glass.

Paper will continue to be collected as in the past and on the first and third weeks of the month. Magazines and newspapers only will be collected and may be tied or placed in grocery bags. Corrugated cardboard will not be picked up.

The corporation was able to secure the services of a contractor who has had experience with similar programs in other communities.

Obtaining of a contractor relieves the group from purchase of equipment and labor costs.

The recycling schedule for July will be: first week, papers and magazines, ties or in bags, the second week will be clear glass; third week, papers and magazines and the fourth week, green glass and brown glass in separate bags, no tin cans.

The formal organization of the non-profit corporation took place Wednesday night at the library.

Returned
With Thanks

A check for $1,060 gained from the recent recycling auction was presented to selectmen Monday night and immediately returned to the committee for its operation of the town's recycling program. The exchange was executed by Mrs. Virginia Cole and Selectman James Abramson. Mrs. Cole was elected president of the non-profit corporation which will continue the town's recycling program beginning next week.

Bazaar Days Festivities

Main Street was blocked off to cars and bicycles from Elm Square to Chestnut Street last Friday and Saturday to clear the way for the annual Sidewalk Bazaar run by the Center Merchants of the Andover Chamber of Commerce. Shown clockwise from the upper left are: Abby Lamontagne, 63 Chestnut St., watching over the handiwork of the senior citizens of Academy Munor; the smiling ticket lady; James Shay, 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Shay, 4 Cherokee Circle on the merry-go-round; Mary Lussier, 11 High St., at the MacCartney's sidewalk sale; Pam Rockman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rockman, 84 Ballardvale Road and twins Michael and Patrick McEvoy on the surface of the Lunar Walk.

Observing The Fourth A Little Differently

The Fourth of July observance is bound to be a little different this year, due, of course, to the gasoline shortage.

While there will be the usual warning concerning highway safety, the lack of fuel to go places, plus the holiday falling in the middle of the week, should tend to keep people close to home.

And that's not such a bad idea.

Rather than the hustle and bustle of packing up the family car, scooting off to a resort area or some such vacation or recreation spot, staying in the old back yard and enjoying local festivities could provide just as much fun.

The Andover Jaycees has taken over responsibility for conducting the annual Fourth of July program at the Park this year.

As in the past there will be something for the entire family during the day's activities, capped off with a giant fireworks display at dusk.

With the exception of a year ago when the event was rained out, the annual program has proven successful and enjoyable to thousands of Andover residents and visitors. This year should be no different.

It's interesting that crisis situations seem to produce a certain camaraderie among neighbors and friends.

In addition to the town-wide holiday celebration, we are impressed with the growing number of block parties, as residents get together, request the use of their street for a few hours for a cookout and general good time. Everyone pitches in to provide for recreational activity, food and refreshments. The end result, of course, everyone enjoys the festivities, neighbors get to know one another a little better, and entire families have time to be together and enjoy one another's company.

If there was sufficient fuel, holiday periods would probably result in everyone going off in different directions, even within the family. Thus, the gas shortage does have some compensations in this regard.

There is one item, we feel important to comment on, with regard to alternate transportation. The fuel problem apparently has resulted in many more bicyclists on the road.

While cycling is both good exercise and a health alternative to the automobile, those using such mode of transportation are reminded that the same rules of the road apply. We have seen many cyclists going through red lights a most dangerous practice using sidewalks and in general ignoring regulations. We would hope that cyclists consider their own safety as well as others, and be mindful of safe cycling rules and regulations.

Acceptable Inconvenience

Shawsheen residents must be 'enjoying' whatever inconvenience may be experienced with the construction underway in the village.

The long-awaited new water pipes are being installed which bodes well for the hundreds in the area who have put up with difficult conditions for over a year and a half.

So with a few ruts, detours, some dust, etc. for a short time, their problems will be solved with new pipes and clean water.

We've mentioned it before, but it bears repeating. Shawsheen residents are to be commended for their patience and understanding.

The dirty water conditions there have been the subject of several methods of treatment, all with a view toward saving the town money. In the end, the only solution was to install new lines. And, while all the various methods were tried, they suffered with the problems which resulted in dirty laundry, boiler damage in some cases, as well as other difficulties.

Down The Years With The Townsman

75 Years Ago — June, 1904

The fire department was called out last Saturday afternoon to extinguish a fire in the woods of the Foster estate near the Spring Grove Cemetery. After a short time, the blaze was extinguished without much damage being done.

It is expected that the Andover Athletic Association will have two good games to play on July 4. In the morning the Unions will be their opponents, while in the afternoon the Ballardvale team will play.

Sailing for Liverpoole, England, Wednesday on the Leland Line steamer Bohemian were Rev. Donald McFayden of Andover and Mr. James A. Ropes.

It will be an interesting fact to many people to know that Charles M. Fairbanks, the Indiana Senator, who was nominated for the vice-president yesterday in Chicago is the father of Robert Fairbanks.

Edward P. Brookes and family narrowly escaped injury yesterday afternoon while riding in a railroad carriage. The carriage was overturned by a curb and no one was hurt.

A perfect June day on Thursday added the finishing touch to the well-planned program for the outing of the officers and employees of the local insurance offices which included a boat trip to the Isle of Shoals, a dinner at the Hotel Wentworth, Newcastle, New Hampshire and evenings entertainment.

Swimming classes were organized Monday at the public swimming beach at Poup's Pond under the direction of John A. Robertson, head lifeguard. A total of 52 children were listed in the classes.

Punchard Hall resounded last Friday evening to the school song and cheers for members of the faculty and special friends of the school when a large gathering of alumni assembled for the annual banquet and business meeting. More than 300 were in attendance including the Class of '29 who were guests of the members.

Miss Lillian Hatch who formerly served as counsellor at Camp Andover, Poup's Pond and who is to be graduated from the Boston University School of Religious Education, has been selected as director of religious education at the High St. Congregational Church, Auburn, Maine.

25 Years Ago—June 1954

The Newcomers' Club held its final meeting of the season last Monday with a buffet luncheon held at the Andover Inn.

Flags and markers will be placed on graves of the veterans twice a year—Memorial Day and Veteran's Day. The second decoration is a new service in honor of the soldier and sailor dead will be in lieu of placing flowers on the graves on Memorial Day.

At a special letter award assembly held at Punchard High School last Friday in charge of Kenneth K. McKinny a large number of students were presented with various awards. Varsity letters were awarded by the coaches in various sports and other awards included those for art, band, orchestra and good citizenship.

Andover members of the school sailing club captured many of the major trophies for the spring racing season at Lake Quannapowitt in Wakefield.

"As the ivy hangs poised for a space above granite walls, so we pause here at our graduation from Punchard High School to reflect a moment to consider how our years here have prepared us for our

Coverage Appreciated

To the Editor of The TOWNSMAN:

On behalf of the Andover Aides

Organization, let me thank you for your coverage. On June 14, of the attempt of our organization to persuade the Andover School Committee that no aides in our town should be paid less than the federally legislated minimum wage. The support for this measure is very strong in our group, initiative as well as support coming from the more experienced and well-paid aides. We believe that this matter is the appropriate concern of all the citizens of Andover and appreciate the coverage in The TOWNSMAN, which brings it to widespread public attention.

At the June 12 meeting, our Superintendent, Dr. Kenneth Seifert, noted for School Committee members that staff morale is down. One of the several factors he singled out was the fact that some school system employees are not being paid a decent wage, and yet are performing most responsible duties with the school children. We appreciate his comments which seem to give our position some credence.

Many High U.S. Officials Took Expensive Gifts from the Shah

WASHINGTON -- Thomas Jefferson once returned a gift to a Baltimore merchant with these words: "It is a law, sacred to me while in public character, to receive nothing which bears a pecuniary value."

His dictum was read, admired and quickly forgotten. From the earliest days of the republic, the votes of congressmen have been bought by lobbyists, compromised by women and traded for favors. In the same spirit, government officials have awarded contracts and other benefits in return for kickbacks and payoffs.

Congress finally passed a "gift law" to discourage government employees from selling out to foreign governments. Under this rule, a federal employee can accept gifts under $100 in value — Thomas Jefferson notwithstanding.

But anything that costs more than $100 must be reported within 60 days and turned over to the government. There is one troubling loophole in the law. A foreign potentate can bribe a U.S. official with expensive gifts and payments, as long as he doesn't offer more than $100 at a time. An official could accept a $99 gift every day, without violating the law.

No foreign potentate was more generous with gifts than the shah of Iran. Now that he has been deposed, we have had access to secret records of the Iranian embassy. These show that the shah, through his ambassador Ardeshir Zahedi, was handing out rugs, jewelry, caviar, champagne and mysterious "packages" all over Washington.

They ranged from an antique carved cow's head for the late Vice President Nelson Rockefeller to a necklace with a carved cow's head for former President Richard Nixon's secretary, Rose Mary Woods. Two ex-secretaries of state, William Rogers and Henry Kissinger, received Iranian rugs worth an estimated minimum of $1,500 each.

The downfall of the shah also produced a caviar crisis in the ruling circles of Washington. We have seen receipts signed by prominent caviar lovers. They include names like Henry Kissinger (his son, David, signed for one delivery); Sen. Jacob Javits, R-N.Y., and Sen. Henry Jackson, D-Wash., also got tins of the fancy fish eggs.

Each of them received one or two kilos of the best Iranian caviar each time. This stuff costs upwards of $700 a kilo and, under the law, was supposed to be turned over to the government.

We suspect, however, that the evidence has been digested by now.

Footnote: A spokesman for Kissinger insisted he never accepted the shah's gifts while holding public office.

Fuel Fracas: President Carter may have blown an opportunity to tap Mexico's fabulous new oil fields. The Mexicans were willing to boost their oil exports to the United States up to 4 million barrels a day by 1985. This would reduce U.S. dependence on the vulnerable faraway oil wells of the Middle East.

But the Mexicans also need a market for the natural gas that is unleashed with the oil. Mexican officials reached an agreement with a U.S. consortium to pipe 2 billion cubic feet of surplus Mexican gas across the border daily.

But Energy Secretary James Schlesinger squelched the deal. He objected on the grounds that Mexican gas is more expensive than Canadian natural gas. The Mexicans needed the money to develop their oil and gas fields. But the difference would be a small price to pay to assure the United States a secure future source of oil.

Schlesinger not only turned down the Mexican offer; he also offended our southern neighbors with his abrasive manner. Nor did President Carter help when he visited Mexico last February and insulted his hosts by announcing he had once been stricken with "Montezuma's Revenge."

The need for Mexican oil, meanwhile, has become even more pressing. So the president has tried to get the negotiations back on track. He even offered to purchase the natural gas that Schlesinger had rejected.

We have been apprised of what is going on in the secret negotiations, and we regret to report that the Mexicans are disgusted with the U.S. price offer. It isn't enough, they contend, to pay for the high development costs.

So the Mexicans have angrily cut back their offer from 2 billion to 300 million cubic feet a day. This is a mere 15 percent of the original amount. They will use the gas themselves, they say, if they don't get a better offer.

Meanwhile, this will delay the development of the Mexican oil fields, and the United States may wind up last in line when it comes time to purchase the precious oil.

Headlines and Footnotes: No less than 63 candidates have entered the 1980 presidential race so far, including a 23-year-old reporter and a man who claims he is the prophet Elijah ... When today's 20-year-olds retire around the year 2025, according to the Social Security Administration, they will receive at least $65,000 a year in Social Security retirement pay. That amount is based on an average annual wage of $162,000 ... Some 800 distressed souls were stranded on the South Sea island of Tahiti when the DC-10s were grounded. The airlines involved will foot the bill for their extended vacations ... Worried about a nuclear holocaust? Get a job with Mobil Oil or IBM. # Ruthers Tumble To Second

By Rick Harrison

The Andover Babe Ruth 13-15 baseball team split its most recent four games, winning a pair of lopsided decisions and dropping a pair of tough one-run verdicts.

The results tumbled Andover from first to second place in the Greater-Lawrence League, one game behind North Andover, as the locals now stand at 7-2 overall and 6-2 in the league.

Poor fielding plagued Andover in three of the four games, including the two losses, as 13 of the 17 runs surrendered by the club were unearned.

The victories came at the expense of South Lawrence East (11-6) and North Lawrence (10-2), while the losses were against North Andover (3-2 and South Lawrence West (6-5).

Andover, which also had games earlier this week against Tower Hill and South Lawrence East, will not return to league action now until Monday, July 9 when it hosts South Lawrence West at the Playstead.

Jake Powell, Tim Grams and John Pelletier begin play in the annual Babe Ruth District All-Star Tournament tomorrow night (8 p.m.) at Mark Devlin Field, as the Greater-Lawrence team faces Everett. Pelletier will be the starting pitcher, Powell the catcher and Grams will start in centerfield.

North Andover, 3-2

Righthanders Jon Pelletier of Andover and Jack Fiorino of North Andover locked horns in another excellent pitcher's duel, theirsecond of the season, but NA's defense was a little sharper and that proved to be the difference as Andover's five-game win streak was snapped.

Pelletier (2-1 overall) permitted only five hits and one earned run, walking four and fanning 10, but three Andover errors proved very costly.

Fiorino countered with a five-hitter of his own, issuing four walks and whiffing nine.

The winners grabbed a 1-0 lead in the first when Ken Long reached on a one-out error, and came across on another infield throwing error.

Andover tied it 1-1 with a tainted run of its own in the second. Jake Powell singled, stole second and third, and he raced home when NA catcher Mike Valentino's pickoff throw to third got away.

The locals took a 2-1 edge in the third inning when Robbie Wilson drew a leadoff walk, took second on a passed ball, and raced home on Jon Pelletier's two-out double.

Andover threatened for more in this inning. Powell followed with a sharp single to leftfield, but because the ball was hit so hard, Pelletier was forced to hold up at third base.

Rich Grimm then flared a looping shot to right-centerfield, which would have been good for two runs had John Skiba not made a nice running backhanded catch to end the inning.

NA had runners at second and third with two down in the fourth, but Dave Bouchard grounded out to Matt Wells at short to end the threat.

The visitors tied it 2-2 in the fifth, however, when Long singled and Fiorino drilled a long triple down the leftfield line.

The winning run came in the sixth when Ken Dillman was hit by a pitch, stole second, took third on a passed ball, and scored on a wild pitch.

Andover threatened in the bottom of the fifth as Jeff Demers walked, stole second, and took third on a passed ball. Fiorino bore down and retired the heart of the order, getting Pelletier on a grounder to short and Powell on a fly to centerfield.

The final Andover bid came in the bottom of the seventh. After Fiorino whiffed the first two batters, he ran the count to 3-and-2 on Tim Grams before he belted a long double to left field.

Demers then walked, setting the stage for Pelletier, but NA third baseman Paul Kolano gloved his hard one-hopper and barely beat Grams to the bag for the force-out.

Powell went 2-for-3 to lead the Andover attack, and Tim Grams made another outstanding shoetop catch in the first to rob John Skiba of a basehit.

Andover, 11-6

Righthander Rich Grimm boosted his record to 2-0 with a complete game seven-hitter, walking five and whiffing five, but once again the Andover defense was porous and made the game tougher than it should have been.

Only one of the six SLE runs was earned, as Andover committed five errors.

The locals mounted a potent 10-hit attack, however, and broke a 5-5 tie with five runs in the bottom of the fourth.

Andover grabbed a 1-0 lead in the first when Jon Pelletier roped a two-out single, stole second, and scored on Jake Powell's sharp single.

South Lawrence East countered with three unearned runs in the third, without benefit of a hit, as a walk, a passed ball, a wild pitch and three infield errors combined to do the damage.

The winners bounded back on top 5-3 in the bottom of the third with four runs, three of which were tarnished. Jake Powell supplied the key blow of the inning with a long two-run double to leftfield.

SLE tied it 5-5 in the top of the fourth. Mike Conway reached on a one-out infield error, Matt Nardiff doubled him home, and Bernie Conway drilled a run-scoring single.

Bernie Conway was subsequently gunned down trying to score the go-ahead run on Rob Hamilton's double, as Pelletier fired a strike to catcher Andy Emmert who slapped on the tag.

Andover erupted for five runs in the bottom of the fourth, sending 11 men to the plate. Jim MacMillan started the rally with a one-out single, Powell drove across his fourth and fifth runs of the game with a single, and Emmert lashed an RBI single to highlight the uprising.

SLE picked up its final run in the fifth when losing pitcher John Ardagna singled, and Paul Pizzuto ripped an RBI double.

Andover cut down its second runner at the plate on Pizzuto's two bagger as Stever Rourke, who had walked, was nailed on a perfect throw from leftfielder Jim MacMillan to Emmert.

The victors' last tally came in the fifth. Tim Grams led with a single, took second

Little League Titlists

Long, Allan Gable, David Riddeford, George Cioffi and Paul Juliano. Back row, coaches Dick DeGregorio, Allan Gable and manager Dick Pomerleau.

Cardinals Win Town Championship

The Cardinals and the Patriots faced each other in a best of two out of three series for the town minor little league championship and the Cards bested the Pats in two straight.

Cardinals 23, Patriots 16

Craig Barry went the distance in pitching the Cardinals over the Patriots by a score of 23 to 16. The Patriots took an early three to one lead in the contest, but the Cardinals roared back to take a commanding 15 to 3 lead in the 3rd inning and were in complete command the rest of the game. The Patriots made a game effort scoring 10 runs in the last inning but came up short.

Offensively, the Cards were led by Craig Barry and Bobby Nelson who each had three hits. Allan Gable had two hits, while Paul Juliano, Scott DeGregorio, George Cioffi and Chris Olson all pitched in with key hits. The Patriots were led by Morrison who had three hits, while the Driscoll brothers chipped in with two hits apiece. Other Pats who had hits were S. Vellina, D. Junn, McVoy and J. Valleux.

Cardinals 10, Patriots 0

Bobby Nelson pitched a brilliant 3 hit shutout at the Patriots while leading the Cardinals to the town Championship.

Nelson struck out 12 Patriots in going the route, and has not allowed a run scored in his last five mound appearances. Offensively Nelson led his team with three hits, while Craig Barry, Allan Gable, Greg Long and Chris Olson all had two hits each in leading the Cards 13 hit attack. Scott DeGregorio, Craig Barry and Greg Long stood out defensively. The Cardinal season record stands at 14 wins against 2 losses.

For the Patriots, J. Valleux, Driscoll and Forbes had the only hits off of Nelson. Presentation of the Championship and runner-up trophies was made at game ending ceremonies by Minor League Vice Presidents Ralph Perlberg and Bill Batchelder and Little League President Mike Kalil.

on a passed ball, and scored on Jeff Demers' single.

Jake Powell continued his red-hot hitting with 3-for-4 and five RBI, while Emmert went 2-for-3 and Grams 2-for-4. Grams and Pelletier scored three runs apiece.

Pelletier enjoyed an exceptional night defensively in center, doubling a runner off first base in the opening inning, and shocking Rourke by throwing him out at first in the final stanza after Steve had grounded an apparent single to center-field.

SLW, 6-5

Although outitting South Lawrence West 12-8, Andover turned in its third straight sub-par defensive performance and dropped out of first place with its second one-run loss of the week.

Jim MacMillan pitched well in his first Babe Ruth outing, striking out six and walking only three, but five of West's six runs were unearned.

Andover thus committed 12 errors in three games, and 12 of the opposition's 15 runs in those contests were unearned.

SLW took a brief 1-0 edge in the top of the second when Cal Green walked, Paul Farhadian singled, and a two-out infield miscue rescued Green.

Prior to that run Andover cut down another man at the plate, as Jay LaCharite was nailed by Emmert trying to score after a wild pitch.

Andover tied it 1-1 in the bottom of the second on one-out singles by Matt Wells and Rob Wilson, along with a two-out RBI single by Tim Grams.

West regained a 3-1 edge in the third as Paul Karamourtopoulos doubled, winning pitcher Brian Provencher sliced an RBI triple down the rightfield line, and a throwing error allowed Provencher to cross.

Tough luck continued to stalk Andover in the bottom of the third. Jon Pelletier led with a long double to centerfield, the second of his four hits, but he was doubled up when Jake Powell drilled a vicious liner directly at SLW shortstop Mike Curley.

The locals still came up with a run, however, as Rich Grimm walked and Andy Emmert crushed a long RBI triple.

Run-scoring singles by Curley and LaCharite, following two walks and another infield error, gave West a 5-2 lead in the fourth.

Andover countered with two in the last of the fourth. MacMillan doubled, Jeff Demers singled and Pelletier slammed another two-bagger.

SLW netted the winning run in the sixth when Karamourtopoulos lashed a one-out single, stole second, and scored on an infield error.

Provencher, meanwhile, settled down and had retired eight straight Andover batters entering the bottom of the seventh.

Pelletier and Powell opened the seventh with consecutive crisp singles to leftfield, and Rich Grimm's sacrifice bunt moved the tying runs into scoring position with one out.

Andy Emmert lofted a sacrifice fly to rightfield, plating Pelletier and cutting the gap to 6-5, but that's as close as Andover could come.

Pelletier led the locals' offense with a perfect 4-for-4 night at the plate, boosting his average to .423, while Jeff Demers was 2-for-4.

Demers and Matt Wells pulled off a nice keystone combo doubleplay in the sixth.

Andover, 10-2

Jon Pelletier, in his All-Star Game tuneup, scattered five hits and struck out eight in pitching Andover past North Lawrence at the Playstead.

The victory boosted Pelletier's personal ledger to 3-1, as he tossed his fourth complete game and the club's eighth straight this year.

The locals took a 2-0 first inning lead against complete-game losing pitcher Rob Valentino, combining a single by Tim Grams, walks to Pelletier, Jake Powell and Glen McIntyre, and three stolen bases.

The winners made it 5-0 in the third, highlighted by McIntyre's run-scoring single and Andy Emmert's RBI double. Pelletier and Matt Wells also stroked basehits in the stanza.

North Lawrence, which had left the bases loaded in both the first and third, broke through for its only two runs in the fourth. An RBI double by Frank DeJesus and a throwing error did the damage.

Andover retaliated with a pair of long double to leftfield. Grimm took third on Mike Gibson's infield hit, and he later scored on a passed ball.

Pelletier, McIntyre and Matt Wells led the 11-hit Andover attack with 2-for-3 nights, while Tim Grams added a 2-for-4 effort.

Infielder Jeff Demers and outfielder Rob Wilson starred on defense.

Montreal Trip

The Andover team will embark for Montreal next Thursday, returning the following Sunday.

While in Canada the team will play several games against youth teams from Montreal, along with visiting the "Man and His World" exhibition and viewing a Montreal Expos-Los Angeles Dodgers game.

Among the players making the trip are Rich Grimm, Glen McIntyre, Tim Grams, Jake Powell, Jon Pelletier, Jeff Demers, Jim MacMillan, Andy Emmert, Matt Wells, Ed O'Connor, Mike Gibson, Robbie Wilson, Tom Powers, Steve Dougal, Billy Vickers, Fred Foote, Bob Heidt, Steve Rathbun and Wayne Merola.

The team will be based at the University of Montreal.

Urgent Need For Families

Students from Spain arrive in Andover on July 10 for a four-week educational visit. Homes are still needed for boys aged 15 to 20. While in the area the boys will attend classes from 9-12 and three days a week will go on field trips from 12-5. Host family children of appropriate age are invited to join in on these trips.

Partial scholarships are available for host family use on an overseas American Institute for Foreign Study trip during the following year. Sue Stephens is planning on taking a group of people, who will be using their scholarships, on a trip to Spain during the 1980 April vacation. Others may wish to join this group and they, as well as those interested in hosting a student, can contact: Sue Stephens, 43 Sutherland St., Andover.

play 3 games a week. The league is divided into 2 divisions and the standings and a few of the game write ups are as follows:

| East Division |   |   |
|---------------|---|---|
|               | W | L |
| Pirates ..... | 6 | 5 |
| Dodgers ..... | 6 | 6 |

|               | W | L |
| Indians ..... | 8 | 3 |
| Red Sox ..... | 6 | 5 |
| Angels .....  | 3 | 8 |

Indians 1, Angels 0

The opening game of the senior league season was marked by a superb defensive contest between the Indians and the Angels. Tim Lacourse of the Angels and Steve Smith of the Indians each pitched almost flawless baseball in yielding only two hits to each team. The defensive play of the game was a 1-3-2 double play in the fourth inning stopping the Angels rally. The Indians won the game on back to back hits in the last of the sixth inning. Jeff Parker singled with two outs, stole second, and scored on Mike Walsh's line drive single to center field.

Angels 9, Dodgers 1

The Angels entered the win column with a 9-1 victory. Chris O'Reilly fired a two-hitter striking out eight. Tom Kanam supplied the big bat slamming two doubles and a single. Tim Lacourse and J.R. Linquist each had two hits for the winners. Mike White singled and scored the lone run for the Dodgers. Frank Dipiano had the only other base hit. Steve Johnson was tabbed with the loss.

Angels 10, Mets 6

The Angels pushed five runs across in the sixth inning to defeat the Mets 10-6. Eric Teichert and Dean Weaver shared the pitching duties for the Angels. Jeff Linquist with three hits and J.R. Linquist's two singles led the attack for the winners. Vito Caiati and Mike Walsh played well for the Mets.

Travel time between Washington, D.C. and New York will be reduced to two hours and 40 minutes upon the completion of the Northeast Corridor Improvement Project around 1981, according to the Federal Railroad Administration.

Ruth Seniors Lead League

By Rick Harrison

The Andover Senior Babe Ruth baseball team took over first place in the Greater-Lawrence League, and stretched its winning streak to four games, edging Chelmsford 9-6 in eight innings and drilling Lawrence American 13-2 in action last week.

The results boosted Manager Al Pelletier's crew to 4-1 overall, while Chelmsford fell back to second at 3-2.

Andover, 9-6

The locals bumped Chelmsford out of first place, tying the game with an unearned run in the seventh and riding Brian Kelly's RBI triple to victory in the eighth.

Lefthander Jim Lacourse started on the mound for Andover, pitching the first two innings, but a combination of errors, walks and four singles proved to be his undoing.

Righthander Frank Pelletier entered in relief, and he picked up his second victory with six frames of four-hit, one-run hurling. Two of the safeties against him were of the infield variety, as Pelletier struck out seven and walked three.

Bob Heidt led the pivotal top of the eighth with a walk. Hot-hitting Marty Soloman lashed a single to centerfield, and Heidt raced home with the eventual winning run on a two-base error.

Kelly then stepped up and hammered a long triple to the centerfield fence at Mark Devlin #2 field, rescuing Soloman with an insurance run.

Pelletier plated Kelly with a single to rightfield, boosting the lead to 9-6.

Chelmsford did some stirring around in the bottom half of the eighth, but shoddy baserunning led to its downfall.

Keith Driscoll opened the stanza with a walk, and Bob Cossette lifted a single to shallow rightfield. Driscoll was cut down trying for third base on the play, and Cossette was doubled up at second attempting to stretch his hit.

Neil Julien, who had two previous hits, then popped out to end the game.

Kelly led the Andover attack with 2-for-4, while Soloman stroked his single and drove in a pair of runs earlier in the game.

Julien went 2-for-3 for Chelmsford.

Andover, 13-2

Andover avenged its season-opening loss to Lawrence American, pounding that team 13-2 at the East Junior High Playstead Field.

Southpaw Bob Heidt lifted his record to 2-0, tossing six innings of crisp one-hit ball. He walked four and struck out eight.

Heidt has now surrendered just four safeties in 13 innings, whiffing 21 batters and allowing no earned runs.

Eddie Powers mopped up in the seventh, and the big righthander permitted one hit.

Andover collected 12 hits including doubles by Chris O'Hara, Rich Gusmini, Brian Kelly and Frank Pelletier.

Heidt finished the contest 3-for-4, while Gusmini and Pelletier chipped in two safeties apiece.

Every Andover player saw a minimum of three innings action and, in an impressive display of balance, nine different players had RBI's.

The same two teams meet tonight at Mark Devlin Field at 6 p.m.

Some American Indians used to believe that an eclipse meant the sun was being extinguished, so they tried to rekindle it by shooting fire-arrows into the sky.

Red Cells

There are more than 25 trillion red cells in your blood stream which carry life-giving oxygen from your lungs to your tissues, and then return the waste gas to be cleansed by the lungs. In the plasma which floats through the body are also white cells. White cells are an army of guards, enforcing safety by attacking disease.

Wins Letter

The Atlantic seaboard sinks about a foot a century.

Val Gacioch of North Andover has been awarded a varsity letter for her participation on the 1979 Bentley College softball team. Sophomore, Gacioch played third base for the Falcons. She hit .273 with nine hits and six RBIs in 33 at bats and led the team in walks with 15. A graduate of North Andover High School, Gacioch is majoring in accounting. The daughter of Alexander and Lydia Gacioch of 56 Russell St., North Andover is lettering for the second time.

The fatality rate on the nation's highways since 1955 has fallen from 6.34 deaths per 100 million vehicle miles to 3.25 deaths by the end of 1977, according to the U.S. Department of Transportation.

Mid City Supply Now Showing "The Parlour Fan"

Keep cool fashionably with an exciting new Parlour Fan by Fasco, now on display at Mid City Supply, 92 Broadway in Lawrence, lighting headquarters of the Merrimack Valley. Combine fan and light for extra beauty and versatility.

The Fasco Parlour Fan combines fashionable beauty with practical energy-saving efficiency to cool your home during hot summer months. Choose antique white or walnut finish blades and any of four motor colors, and you'll have an elegant fan that will enhance the beauty of any style home. Personalize your Parlour Fan with any of the optional Fasco light fixture accessories — a wonderful way to express your individuality.

The Parlour Fan is practical, too. The care and quality that goes into the construction and design of The Parlour Fan provides silent and energy efficient operation as the direct drive fan circulates air throughout your living area. It not only keeps you cool in summer, but the two-speed Parlour Fan, with built-in Vari-Low Speed Control will keep you comfortable all year round, at least than a penny an hour.

Be the first in your neighborhood to own one of these unusual Parlour Fans, and at the same time realize substantial savings on your cooling costs. A well-placed Parlour Fan will allow the homeowner to set his air conditioning thermostat six to eight degrees above his normal setting and still maintain the same level of cooling comfort.

Visit Mid City Supply soon and the The Parlour Fan in operation. Solve all your lighting problems for your home or business at this wonderful world of lighting. Their Lower Level is a complete wallpaper salon, and also features fine art and commercial art supplies, as well as drafting and engineering school supplies.

From Parlour Fans, to exquisite chandeliers, table lamps, gameroom novelty lights, security lighting, indoor and outdoor lighting of every kind, Mid City Supply is the place to shop. Free parking in the rear of their store at 92 Broadway in Lawrence. Tel. 688-1848.

Ham, Bean Supper Ends Season

The Frye Circle Associates will wind up their activities for July and August with a Ham and Bean Supper for members on Saturday, June 30.

The Associates have had an active and successful year. They meet on the first Tuesday of each month in Manning Hall, with guests speakers and entertainment at each meeting. The associates also have enjoyed several mystery rides during the year.

There has been at least one party for the Associates each month. Card Playing is available each night.

Bingo is played every Thursday evening and will continue during the summer under the direction of Irene Holden.

Two air conditioners have been installed in Manning Hall.

Cookouts are held every Saturday evening, weather permitting under the direction of Leo DuCharme and Evelyn Berg.

The lady members of the associates are now working on items for our Fall Fair, which will be held Oct. 13. The "Work Shop" is held each Thursday afternoon in Manning Hall. A drawing for 12 valuable prizes will be held on the same day, Saturday, Oct. 13. Members are now selling tickets for this drawing.

A nominating committee will be named at the September meeting for the election of officers for 1979-80.

Offices are open to any Associate Member. Officers this year include President, John B. McAllister Sr.; vice president, Evelyn Berg; treasurer, Irene Holden; secretary, Louise Elliot.

A National Highway Traffic Safety Administration report estimates that 200,000 lives have been saved since the Safety Act of 1966, which began the chain of safety improvements in our passenger cars.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS
LAND COURT

To the Commonwealth of Massachusetts; To the Town of Andover, a municipal corporation, located in the County of Essex, and said Commonwealth; FRANCIS E. GOFF, JR., of said Andover; Gerard R. Sorlucco, Trustee of Japelo Realty Trust, of Marblehead, County of Essex, and said Commonwealth; Peter J. Kilmartin, Trustee of Japelo Realty Trust, of Bedford, County of Middlesex, and said Commonwealth; Industrial Materials Technology, Inc., a duly existing corporation, having an usual place of business in Woburn, County of Middlesex, and said Commonwealth; Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority, having an usual place of business in Boston, County of Suffolk, and said Commonwealth; Baybank Merrimack Valley, a duly existing corporation, having an usual place of business in Lawrence, County of Essex, and said Commonwealth; Mystic Warehouse & Distributing Co., Inc., a duly existing corporation, having an usual place of business in said Andover; Cressey Dockham, Inc., a duly existing corporation, having an usual place of business in Salem, County of Essex, and said Commonwealth; Crusader Paperboard Converting Co., Inc., a duly existing corporation, having an usual place of business in Wilmington, County of Middlesex, and said Commonwealth; and to all whom it may concern:

Whereas, a petition has been presented to said Court by Nicholas H. Fitzgerald and Nicholas H. Fitzgerald, Jr., General Partners of Willand Associates, both of Winchester, County of Middlesex, and said Commonwealth, to confirm their title in the following described land:

A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon, situate in said Andover, bounded and described as follows:

Easterly by Ballardvale Street 390.44 feet and 128.37 feet, respectively; Southerly by land now or formerly of Cressey Dockham, Inc. 1090.82 feet; Westerly by land now or formerly of Boston and Maine Corporation 698.70 feet and 125 feet, respectively; Northerly by land now or formerly of Crusader Paperboard Converting Co., Inc. 543.10 feet; Southeasterly and Easterly by land now or formerly of Francis E. Goff, Jr. and by land now or formerly of Peter J. Goff and Kyoko Goff 50 feet and 297.72 feet, respectively; Northerly by land now or formerly of said Peter J. Goff and Kyoko Goff 613.04 feet.

Petitioner claims as appurtenant to the above described land rights or easements as follows:

A sewer and water easement over the westerly and northerly line of land of Crusader Paperboard Converting Co., Inc. as shown on a plan numbered 38872.

Petitioner admits the above described land is subject to an easement for sewer and water on the westerly line of petitioner's land as shown on a plan numbered 38872.

The above described land is shown on a plan numbered 38872 and filed with said petition and all boundary lines are claimed to be located on the ground as shown on said plan.

If you desire to make any objection or defense to said petition you or your attorney must file a written appearance and an answer under oath, setting forth clearly and specifically your objections or defense to each part of said petition, in the office of the Recorder of said Court in Boston (at the Court House), or in the office of the Assistant Recorder of said Court at the Registry of Deeds at Lawrence in the County of Essex where a copy of the plan filed with said petition is deposited, on or before the sixteenth day of July next.

Unless an appearance is so filed by or for you, your default will be recorded, the said petition will be taken as confessed and you will be forever barred from contesting said petition or any decree entered thereon.

Witness, WILLIAM I. RANDALL, Esquire, Chief Justice of said Court, this fourteenth day of June in the year nineteen hundred and seventy-nine.

Attest with Seal of said Court.

ADVANTAGE OF LARGE MORTGAGE

When buying a home, should you strive for a low down payment with a commensurately large mortgage loan? Here's what some experts say about the value of a large mortgage.

The higher interest charge is offset somewhat by a higher tax deduction. The money that would have been put into a larger down payment can be used for other income-producing investments.

Finally, it's cheaper to borrow mortgage money than any other kind. And you certainly may have to borrow for autos and college tuition if you are an average American.

THE VICTOR COMPANY, INC. REALTORS

Today, there are few condominiums that are exceptionally conceived, designed and constructed. And, fewer still are priced right.

The Tower at Ferncroft in Danvers is one of the exceptions. Spacious, luxury condominium residences. In a country club setting at prices that are unusually low when cost per square foot of condominiums is compared. So, you won't have to sacrifice that second home or winter vacation in Florida to enjoy Boston and your old friends and neighbors part of the year.

And, you'll have the time too. No more lawns to mow, gutters to replace or storm windows to put up. At Ferncroft the full time maintenance staff looks after the building. When you're home and when you're not.

When you are home you'll appreciate the developer's attention to detail. Lush carpeted corridors. Imported marble foyers. Eight foot ceilings. Solid oak cabinets. Indoor heated garage. Electronic security system. And, from your balcony, unobstructed views of the Robert Trent Jones golf course, and the forests and mountains beyond. The Tower at Ferncroft means luxury, convenience, security and peace of mind in a friendly community. Professionally managed and marketed by Niles Co.

Two bedroom homes from the $60's to the $80's. Selected penthouses start at $155,000. Call 599-3280 or 774-4317 for an appointment or visit Ferncroft daily from 10-6. Sundays, 12-6. From Boston, take I-95 North to Topsfield Exit and follow signs to Ferncroft Drive

It's your type of life.

Chongris Gravel Permit Is Renewed

George Chongris received approval of selectmen Monday night to go ahead with his gravel removal operation on Blanchard Street.

He will have six months to remove the 25,000 cubic yards of material he wants after filling in the pond which he enlarged on the property.

He must also post a $60,000 bond with the town and provide for controlling the dust raised by trucks removing gravel from the site.

Chongris raised strong objection to filling in the pond which he enlarged at the request of Dina Hammond of the Conservation Commission along with a member of the state department of environmental quality engineering.

He said it would take him a month and cost $25,000 to till the pond, which cost him $42,000 to dig. "I'm not going to fill it,"

Earn Law Degrees At Suffolk

Carl W. Berger, 6 Glenn Cove, Andover, and John J. Cronin, 24 McKenney Circle, Andover, received their juris doctor degrees at the June 10 commencement exercises of Suffolk University Law School.

Berger, who received his degree cum laude, graduated from Andover High in 1969 and the University of Massachusetts-Amherst in 1973. The son of Mr. and Mrs. John Berger of Andover, he was president of the Suffolk University Legal Aid Bureau last fall.

He plans to join the law firm of Berger & Berger in Lawrence.

Cronin, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah B. Cronin, 32 Lincoln Circle, is a 1972 graduate of Austin Prep, and received his bachelors's degree from Merrimack College in 1976. He is married to the former Nancy L. Weikirk of Fresno, Calif.

Chongris told selectmen, "I'll go to the Supreme Court before I'd fill it."

John Ford, attorney for Chongris, later said Chongris had "spoken in the heat of the moment," and did not intend to sue the town over filling in the pond.

The pond, called an "attractive nuisance" by Sgg. James Johnson, police dept. administrative assistant, has become a recreation area, according to information which came out at the hearing.

Johnson said a policeman, being paid at time-and-a-half, patrolled the site last Wednesday and turned away 75 cars, each with about three persons in it.

He said families from housing projects in Lawrence were at the pond with beach chairs and refused to leave. "They told Mr. Chongris where to go," Johnson said, "and they weren't talking flowers and roses either."

Selectman Norma Gammon said she saw 110 cars parked in the area a week ago. She recommended filling in the pond quickly and getting life back to normal on Blanchard St., "That's not normal, the way those people are living out there," she said.

Stanley Nabydowski, who argued loudly with neighbors at hearings two weeks ago, was back. Represented by counsel, he presented photographs taken May 10, 1979 which he said show trucks removing gravel from the site. At that time, Chongris had no permit to do so.

Chongris denied removing gravel illegally from the site. He said the photos showed trucks removing gravel from the Tewksbury portion of his property.

Selectman Lawrence Sullivan recommended approving the permit so Chongris could finish his work and loan and seed the property. Sullivan said he favored leaving the pond and turning the property into a recreation area when Chongris donates it to the town.

"I can see this thing as a continuing public safety problem until he is out of there," Sullivan said. "Let's get you out of there and let's contour the area so the attraction will be removed and let's get the area back to its peaceful tranquility."

Selectmen Gammon and James Abramson said the pond should be filled in, because of its attraction as a recreation site and because it may attract mosquitoes in warmer weather.

The board approved the permit two to one, with Selectman Susan T. Poore abstaining because of a possible conflict of interest. Selectman Chairman Edward M. Harris was absent.

Dining Out Enjoyed By Millions

The art of dining out is enjoyed by millions each year.

This is the report of a survey made by the National Restaurant Association which states that one out of every three food dollars is spent for meals outside the home.

The NRA also reports that one out of every three persons in the United States enjoys dining out, be it for a snack, lunch or dinner.

Better than 50 percent of the families included in the survey said they had eaten out in the prior week. By 1980, the projections from the survey indicate, one out of every two dollars spent for food will be spent for meals away from home.

Why do people leave the home to dine?

There are no doubt as many answers as there are people but one major reason is that it is an enjoyable activity in which the entire family can participate. But, and this is the big factor, no member of the family has to wash the dishes or clean up the dining room.

People are naturally drawn to good food, excellently prepared and served with style. And it is to such restaurants that the American family turns to for a change, whether it is once a week, once a month or just to celebrate a birthday, a promotion or an anniversary.

Such restaurants are becoming more popular each year according to the most recent NRA survey. Currently they rate third in popularity and all indications are that they will gain in the years to come.

Choosing restaurants is a personal thing and there are many and varied reasons, but the most important factor is quality.

The cost of a meal also enters into the habit of eating out. According to the NRA survey, the average amount spent on breakfast at restaurants is $1.81 per person; $2.31 for an average lunch; $3.75 for an average dinner and 88 cents for between meal snacks.

The 45 to 54 age group eat out more frequently and they spend the most money—an average of $17.41 a week. The lowest expenditure was among the under 25 age group, averaging $12.62 a week. Families in the 55 and over age group spent $14.68 weekly.

These are averages for the nation; some areas perhaps have higher percentages. And this section of the country, with an international reputation for good food, no doubt has a higher percentage than many areas. Right now, dining out has grown to the extent that restaurants purchase about 20 percent of the country's food products. In addition, the foodservice industry employs 4.7 percent of the nation's work force, the largest number of any retail sector, according to the National Restaurant Association.

In fact, an NRA official said recently that "the foodservice industry is one of the bright spots in the nation's economic picture. Dining out is a significant part of the life-style of this great country, and the restaurant industry makes a major contribution to our nation's economy."

Lowell Park

Lowell National Historical Park, the birthplace of the American Industrial Revolution, includes textile mills, historic buildings and an extensive canal system. Visitor's Center, 171 Merrimack St., Lowell, open 8 to 5 daily. Three-hour tours of the mill and canal area will be available June to August.

Dining Out - An Occasion For All Seasons

Dining out has become a popular American experience, whether it be for a snack, sandwich or complete meal.

Once reserved for special occasions, visits to fine restaurants in our area is now more popular and commonplace than ever. It offers a relaxing change for families, an opportunity for a change of pace, a chance to discuss business, for some, or just a social gathering among friends, with good food and beverage to spice the occasion.

Contained in these pages of this special section of the TOWNSMAN are several fine dining places, offering the right atmosphere and the right menu for any occasion.

Butcher Boy Restaurant — Inviting Entrance to Fine Dining

J. J. Boyle's Offers More Than A Meal

Flowers, typical of the season, and a red carpeted foyer provide the greeting at J. J. Boyle's Restaurant and lounge, formerly called Butcher Boy, 1250 Osgood St., North Andover. With the summer season, John J. Boyle, owner for the past five years, has an appropriate floral display to greet his many customers. It is but one of the many little extra touches he adds to make the diner, whether new or among the many regular visitors, comfortable and welcome.

J. J. Boyle's has become one of Merrimack Valley's busiest restaurants because of the many extra touches it adds for the dining pleasure of its patrons.

In a period of escalating operation costs, many restaurateurs have taken to offering the minimum, eliminating things like offering cheese and crackers, hot bread and popovers.

"My philosophy is to offer customers as close to the maximum in service as possible," Boyle said, "insofar as it conforms to your ability to keep afloat."

The personal touch goes a long way

'Dining Out' On A Diet Can Be Real Pleasure

Your favorite restaurant with its luxurious decor, a solicitous maitre d', a chef famous for pound-producing sauces and congenial dinner companions need not crumble the determination of the most dedicated dieter, according to Elaine Robin, director of a weight-watching group in Eastern Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

"Special events," Mrs. Robin noted, "provide a good opportunity to demonstrate that even the weight-conscious diner can enjoy eating out, provided he or she follows certain guidelines to avoid eating traps."

towards making even brand new customers at the restaurant feel like old friends.

"On any given Saturday night or Sunday," Boyle said, "a good 50 per cent of our customers are from the Greater Boston area."

J. J. Boyle's has become far more than a local restaurant."

As a result, business is booming for luncheon from 11:30 to 3 p.m. Mondays through Fridays and for dinners every day in the week.

It offers one of the most complete seafood menus in the area in addition to its famous steak and beef specials.

Lobster lovers come from far and wide for the lobster specials. "We try to make the ride worthwhile for those who come from a distance as well as our regulars from this area," Boyle noted.

As a result, J. J. Boyles gift certificates are in constant demand and especially now with more and more people choosing them as one of the best forms of thoughtful holiday gifting.

A meal at J. J. Boyle's is always a memorable experience.

Some of her "dining out" guidelines are as follows:

1. Choose steak houses or seafood restaurants whenever possible.

If you go to another kind of restaurant you can always order meat, poultry, or fish broiled and ask that your vegetables be prepared without butter.

2. Don't pore over the menu.

If you are on a weight reduction program, you know what you can have.

Ask for it.

It's been a long, long time.

This week marks my 27th year in business and things are still looking up, more so now than ever.

Serving the public has been the core of that business and I've enjoyed every minute of it. Towne Deli is now one of the most popular lunch-time restaurants in the entire area and I wish to express my appreciation for your making it so. Based on a solid philosophy of four rules: Cleanliness, Quality, Quantity and Service, we continue to grow. Our extensive restaurant background has contributed greatly to the enjoyment our patrons talk about at the Deli.

Upgrading an excellent product, our food and service, will be an ever continuing process here.

If you haven't been to Towne Deli yet, try us — see and taste the difference.

Sincerely,

KINGSTON HOUSE

- a handsome mirror of history from any angle

Kingston House Is Proud Of Heritage

Both indoors and out, the Kingston 1686 House on Main Street, Kingston, N. H. is a handsome mirror of history. It was built in 1686 as residence for the first minister in the town.

The Owners, Nikki and Peter Speliotis, are so proud of its roots in early Colonial times that they have researched the deeds to corroborate its authenticity.

Such a large elaborate house was rather uncommon in this part of early New England.

Its architecture and history first attracted Nikki and Peter. They appreciated the charm of the old fireplace, the beehive oven in the kitchen, the elegant architecture of the house and converted barn.

When they took it over five years ago, both Nikke and Peter wanted to keep its decor as close to early American and Colonial as possible.

Nikki added her own touches to underscore the 17th Century atmosphere of the restaurant.

For years she had been doing crewel embroidery as a hobby. When they took over the Kingston House she created all of the handsome crewel wall hangings and accessories that attract much attention from patrons and do so much to breathe life into the historic rooms and create a lived-in feeling.

Since this is their first venture into the restaurant business, Nikki and Peter spent a long time deciding on their menu.

Their most popular specialties are dishes in the Surf and Turf category and unique veal recipes.

It has become a family operation with their son Peter as head chef.

He joins them in their efforts to offer superb food in surroundings that take customers back to the time when America was just a handful of colonies.

The setting itself makes a visit to the Kingston House a memorable experience.

Chivalry Not Dead

Some of the popular phrases we use today derive from the time of chivalry. A squire who learned to handle the full-size lance and the long sword expertly, earned the gold spurs of a knight. Today, people who are found worthy of advancement are said to have "earned their spurs." Knights also "tested a man's mettle" with their weapons against his armor. Now we use this phrase when referring to a man's ability to handle the challenges of sports or business competitions.

When knights fought for fun in tournaments, they carried shields called "targets." The knight who shattered his lance on his opponent's shield was "right on target," and received an extra point for his true aim.

'Businessman's Lunch'

The "businessman's lunch" is older than you think. The honor of creating the first belongs to a chap named Seguis Locates, a Roman innkeeper, who in 40 B.C. devised this feature for ship brokers who were too busy to go home for lunch.

The first restaurant "promotion" dates back to 14th Century London. Chaucer's Canterbury pilgrims would gather before their journeys to dine and and revel at the Tabard Inn. The innkeeper, Harry Bailey, began going along on the journeys and judging the best stories told. The top-rated storyteller won a free meal at Bailey's when the group returned to London.

The first waitresses were at a place called "Dolly's Chop House," which numbered among its clientele many famous writers, painters and composers. Fielding, Defoe, Swift, Dryden, Gainsborough and Handel were all steady customers, probably just after she introduced pretty serving maids to replace the traditional waiters.

Concept of the "grill room" in England was credited to traveling Americans who didn't want to dress for dinner. The first grill was opened in London in 1860, and made no restrictions on dress, offered fine atmosphere and good food.

In the United States, earliest restaurants were patterned after their English and Continental counterparts, and were mainly wayside inns, coffee houses and taverns during the Colonial period.

Restaurant Place Settings Evolved Through Centruies

Restaurant-goers are quick to appreciate the handsomely-appointed table setting and the shining silver flanking the plate.

Few ever stop to think that there was a time when such table appointments were reserved only for the wealthy.

In Tudor England, salt cellars were distinguished family possessions, used only by the very wealthy who could afford the prestigious container for the expensive seasoning.

The salt cellar was always placed within easy reach of the dining master of the house, and social rank was designated by seating around the table in relation to the salt cellar.

This gave rise to the oldtime expression, "worth your salt."

The spoon is the oldest eating utensil, dating back to the shells first used by primitive man. Later handles were attached to the shells and even later wood and ivory tusks were carved into spoons.

Bronze was the first metal used on the table, followed by gold and then silver.

The spoon as we see it in today's restaurants dates only from the 1600's.

Knives followed a similar evolution, the first made from stone and flint; followed by bronze and the other metals.

Thompson's: Family Tradition Of Quality

Provide quality food, well prepared, at a reasonable price.

It was on this simple concept that Sidney Thompson and his father George, opened Thompson's Restaurant of North Andover 37 years ago.

It's not such an easy task in the inflationary world of 1978, but Sydney and his son Stuart, who today oversee the daily operation of the restaurant, have found the answer is experience.

Along with keeping their restaurant in the family, the Thompson's have also made a family of their talented staff.

Hostess Elsie Thompson has been with Thompson's for over 30 years.

Executive Chef Raymond Winning with 28 years in the business, combines his talents with Chef Alfred Couture, a 27 year veteran of the restaurant, to oversee a staff that provides culinary delights of the highest quality.

Head Pastry Chef Chester Barton, with 27 years experience, rounds up the management team with dessert creations that have helped make Thompson's famous.

It's this management team and its staff which enables the restaurant to continue to live up to the precepts upon which it was founded: high quality food, well prepared at a reasonable price, in a pleasant atmosphere. It's all still there at the intersection of routes 114 and 125.

Dining Out Should Be Fun

"Fun is people. The restaurant business is people. Here, like my grandmother used to say, 'you want to get, you give.'"

Don Smith, now a professor and formerly owner of a multi-million dollar restaurant business, chaired a panel of the new breed of "Fun Dining" restaurateurs at the Annual National Restaurant Show.

Smith and his grandmother are right, agreed Clyde Thompson, vice president of marketing for Hickory Hearth restaurants. The trick is to measure what people want to get so you can give it.

Thompson uses marketing techniques and questions consumers are accustomed to find as they watch TV or buy panty hose and beer. But Thompson's marketing techniques are unusual in the restaurant business.

Market feasibility studies are the questions and answers on competing restaurants in the area. Who has 50 per cent of the market now? Who goes to those places most often? How do people in the area perceive the restaurants presently doing business there? What kinds of things are lacking in restaurants in the area?

Thompson showed how answers to these questions make up a market feasibility study, the kinds of information on which to base market strategy.

Market strategy, after Thompson's explanation, sounded to one audience member like a "war plan." "Plan of attack" was how Thompson summed it up. Market strategy is "focus on segmentation, on differentiation, on a marketing mix which meets the unmet expectations of customers."

Thompson said.

The market mix, according to Thompson, "combines elements which form a package giving greatest satisfaction to customers. It may be putting out a fruit and salad bar when other restaurants in the area have small salad bars. It may be adding items to the menu which other restaurants don't have.

"Cleanliness is something customers expect and have a right to take for granted," Thompson point out. "We opened up our kitchens in our restaurants to make them attractive showplaces. This makes our restaurants different. It is an example of meeting unfulfilled expectations, of giving satisfaction through market strategy."

Tipping

Tipping has become an integral part of dining out.

Yet few people are aware of the origin of the practice.

According to Mark Strong, executive secretary of the Massachusetts Restaurant Association, the word tips originated from the first letters of the phrase, "to insure prompt service."

However, since most tipping is done after service has been performed, it seems to be more a reward for services already rendered than an incentive for service to come. Strong does not believe that tipping is a prerequisite for being served promptly and courteously.

Managing Water

At least 80 percent of the drinking water produced by most American communities is not used for drinking at all. Instead, it's used in industry and irrigation, washing cars and cleaning floors. In a recent report, the experts at the American Chemical Society, a leading scientific organization, pointed out that highly treated wastewater could be an alternative supply for these needs, doing away with a lot of water wasting. This cannot, however, be put into effect very easily under our existing control system.

As the competition for water become more intense in many parts of the country, regionalization and centralization of water management offer inherent advantages.

As it is, the management of water supplies does not always recognize basinwide needs. No incentives exist for residents of a watershed to cooperate in establishing their water supplies, and many communities are too small to finance proper treatment and monitoring.

Axelrod Expanding In Boxboro

John Axelrod, president of Boxborough Motor Inn and Dauphin Management Corporation, has announced the addition of 102 bedrooms, additional conference and meeting rooms, and expanded Health Club facilities at the Sheraton Inn and Conference Center in Boxborough.

Sheraton's Showplace in Boxborough is a half-acre tropical atrium with twin water-falls and tropical fish-pools as the centerpiece of the conference and hospitality center. Conference facilities, capable of handling any meeting or banquet up to 1200 people and 13,000 square feet of exhibition space for a craft fair, auto show or equipment demonstration, are complimented by exceptional food service and full resort facilities that set Boxborough apart.

The additional bedrooms, making a total of 252 guest rooms and suites, are necessary to effectively service the large groups attracted to this facility. The new luxury suites will feature steam and whirl-pool baths and other amenities. Plans are being finalized for presentation to local authorities.

The Sheraton Inn and Conference Center is owned by Boxboro Motor Inn, Inc. and managed, under a license issued by Sheraton Inns, Inc., by the Dauphin Management Corporation which manages similar centers in Andover, Chicopee and Mansfield (under construction). Financing is being arranged by David Pahl of Boston.

Food Service Industry Has Fascinating History

The history of public eating service is probably as ancient as the Old Testament, which frequently refers to inns.

"Restaurant" has its origin in the Latin root word, "restaurare" which means "to restore." In the 16th century, this Latin root word was applied to a spicy broth and called a "restorative beverage." Later it was applied to other "restorative" foods, especially gravy, soups, bouillions, and similar preparations.

The honor for creating the first "businessmen's lunch" apparently belongs to a chap named Segius Locates, a Roman innkeeper in 40 B.C. He devised the feature for ship brokers who were too busy to go home.

Some authorities claim that the "medieval" history of the restaurant industry began during the French Revolution in 1789, when hiding aristocrats were fed in secret by their servants. These rendezvous became known to other aristocrats who were willing to pay a small charge for well-cooked meals.

In ancient times, there were places for public eating roughly similar to our restaurants. Before the dawn of civilization, when people began making their homes in one place and occasionally traveling away from home — as distinguished from nomads who had no real homes — they needed a place to eat and sleep enroute. Thus early restaurants were usually in conjunction with sleeping accommodations.

Inns, hotels and monasteries of Europe served this function up to the 17th century, Chaucer's Canterbury pilgrims used to gather prior to their journeys to the shrine of St. Thomas A. Becket to dine and revel. They also held inners there after they returned, at which time the best teller of stories during the pilgrimage was rewarded with a free meal and feted. This was the idea of the inn host, Harry Baileu, who went along on the trip to judge the best tales.

In England, commoners had patronized eating places called "ordinary" as far back as 1577. These were taverns which served only at specified mealtimes — usually between one and four o'clock — at a long, common table and at a fixed price. Diners couldn't come in any time and sit any place, then choose from a vast menu.

A noted ordinary frequented by literary figures in the 17th century was the Castle Ordinary. It burned down in 1666 and was rebuilt as Dolly's Chop House. The latter gained reknown when "Dolly" introduced pretty serving aids instead of waiters. Dolly's Chop House was famed for choice of beefsteaks and ales. Fielding, Defoe, Swift, Dryden, Pope, Gainsborough and Handel were steady customers of this Chop House.

When coffee was introduced to Europe, the restaurant function was taken over by coffee houses which were popular in England from the 17th century on. In France, the "Cafe" (coffee) arose. The first English coffee house was in St. Michaels Alley, Cornhill, owned by a Greek named Pasqua Rosee who was the first to teach the method of roasting coffee and to introduce it in England.

The first public eating place to be designated as a restaurant was opened in Paris in 1775. It was called LeChamp d'Oiseau and its proprietor was a gentleman called Boulanger. Over the doorway was a Latin inscription: VEnite et me omnes que stomacho laboratis et ego restaurabo vos — "Come to me all whose stomachs cry out in anguish and I shall restore you."

Service A Top Consideration For Restaurant Owners

Area restaurants joined the National Restaurant Association and allied industry trade groups in a nationwide drive to heighten pride in service throughout the giant $45 billion foodservice industry.

Under the banner of "We're Proud to Serve You!", area food service and lodging businesses are seeking to rekindle new enthusiasm for an old-fashioned concept—pride in service.

"The idea," says the National Restaurant Association, "is to get hundreds of thousands of restaurant employees involved in a program that builds pride in accomplishment."

"We're Proud to Serve You!" offers a plan to improve service performance and morale together with a program to merchandise this effort in ways that capture the public's attention.

A wide array of promotional materials, including campaign buttons, posters, floor mats, counter cards, and customer giveaway items will begin appearing soon in area restaurants, the NRA said.

"Pride in service is a positive value that can be shared by both employee and customer at no additional cost to either. It follows that if foodservice employees take pride in what they do it will translate directly to restaurant customers in the form of more courteous and conscientious service," the trade association believes.

The NRA further described the drive as "a positive, purposeful program that will help the industry win new friends. It represents a novel, fun approach to a situation that restaurant customers consider important when dining away from home.

Surveys show that when service falters in a restaurant, the quality of the total dining experience is diminished in the eyes of the consumer.

The NRA said foodservice and lodging businesses everywhere, regardless of size or type of service,

Seafood Restaurant Favorite

Americans eat an average of 111 pounds of meat each year, but only 12 pounds of fish.

However, fish is considered big business for restaurateurs because an estimated 75 per cent of all seafood is eaten out.

As one fish and chip franchise owner put it, "Fish is the meal you can take home, but can't make at home." While Americans eagerly throw a steak into the broiler or pop a roast into the oven, most wait until they're seated at a restaurant to order baked stuffed lobster or shrimp Creole.

Dining experts say that most Americans simply haven't had enough exposure to seafood but all that's changing. Throughout the midwest and non-coastal regions of the U.S., new seafood restaurants are cropping up. Fish and chipperies, nautical white tablecloth operations and medium-priced family restaurants are growing rapidly.

are being encouraged to take part in the drive to promote pride in service. Potential for participation is great because the industry ranks first in the nation in terms of total number of business units.

There are an estimated 336,400 commercial restaurants and about 151,800 institutional foodservice operations in the U.S. today. In terms of people, the industry employs more than 3.8 million, including more teenagers and parttime workers than any other industry in the country.

Nationwide, the campaign is being introduced in more than 50 cities coast-to-coast. It is being backed by industry trade groups that count more than 120,000 members.

Dieters

Be cordial to the maitre d', and send your compliments to the chef for helping you stay on your diet.

3. Order a salad of coffee immediately.

Move the basket of rolls to the other side of the table.

If you have something to eat that meets your diet requirements, and if you are not confronted with the temptation to nibble, you will find it much easier to follow your food program.

4. Be the first one in your party to order.

This avoids the "me, too" syndrome and keeps you away from a major trap.

5. There is no need to forego dessert.

Melon, grapefruit, or a fresh fruit cup (without sherbert!) are a safe bet and usually available.

Male Diners Consistently Tip Higher, Eat Faster

Male diners are better tippers, eat breakfast and lunch faster, and have more fun eating out than do women.

B. Brody Seating Company, Chicago, manufacturer of contract dining furniture, undertook this survey to obtain a better idea of trends in the restaurant industry and to garner facts which might be relevant to the design of dining furniture.

The survey was conducted among 200 members selected at random from the National Restaurant Association membership, with proportional representation from all 48 continental states.

Some statistics on respondents:

1. Seventy-four per cent characterize themselves as family service, medium-check; 17% say they're white-cloth high-check types; and 9% say they're fast food and carry-out places.

2. The sample says 17% of their revenues come from breakfast, 30% from luncheon, and 53% from dinner.

3. The average restaurant in the sample redecorates (paints or washes) every 2.5 years, while it completely remodels and refurnishes every 5.7 years.

4. The sample says 54% of customers prefer to sit in side chairs (not arms), 30% like arm chairs, 6% like swivel chairs, and 10% prefer booths.

Some conclusions:

1. Dining out involved companionship, even at breakfast. Most people eat with two persons or more: 38% with two or more at breakfast, 48% at lunch, 57% at dinner.

2. Most dining patrons (47% to 59%) prefer to sit at tables rather than in booths or at the counter.

3. Anywhere from 54% to 61% of diners are men.

4. Men spend less time than women do at breakfast (26 minutes v. 55 minutes), but more time at dinner (1 hour 35 minutes vs. 1 hour 30 minutes).

5. Breakfast averages $1.12 in price, luncheons $1.70 and dinners $3.95. Luncheons and dinners are higher-priced at private parties in the same restaurants. Prices have stayed approximately the same over the past year.

6. Men tip consistently higher than women: 13% vs. 9% at breakfast, 14% vs. 10% at lunch, and 15% vs. 12% at dinner.

7. Tastes in foods vary between men and women. At breakfast, over two-thirds of men prefer eggs with some form of breakfast meat (bacon, sausage, ham), while almost half of the women prefer rolls or toast. At luncheon, beef is preferred by the men, while the women want salads. At dinner, nearly half the men like steak, while the same number of women prefer seafood.

8. Men and women see almost eye-to-eye on the ordering of dessert: only about a quarter to a third do so. Pies are the preferred luncheon dessert for those men who do order, and they're also the leading favorite with women. At dinner, pies lead with men, but women prefer ice cream.

9. Where drinks are available, the men will outdrink the women: 1.5 vs. 1.1 cocktails at lunch, 2.5 vs. 1.5 cocktails at dinner.

10. Cash is the preferred method of paying for a meal. 95% at breakfast, 89% at luncheon, 84% at dinner.

The word "tips" is said to have originated from the first letters of the phrase "to insure prompt service." Since most tipping is done after the service has been performed, it would appear to reward rather than to insure good service.

But why should tipping be a prerequisite for being served promptly and courteously? Frankly, I do not think that it is. Rather, I believe that the custom must have originated as a sort of status symbol on the part of the served to demonstrate their ability to pay for special treatment.

For many years, waitresses, waiters, bellboys and other service employees in many large hotels, restaurants and clubs not only worked for their tips alone, but actually paid for the privilege of working. With the advent of minimum wage laws this custom was abolished. However, the minimum rates established by these laws for service employees generally are lower than for non-service employees, thus taking into account the tips received by the former.

At least one thing which may be said in favor of tipping is that it probably has helped more young people to attain a college or business school education through summer employment as waitresses and bellboys than by any other form of position. For example, it is not unusual for a waitress during an eight to ten-week season to earn from eight hundred to a thousand dollars toward her education, and the applications for this type of summer work always far outnumber the available positions.

How much does a customer tip a waitress? This, of course, is entirely up to the whim of the customer, as it has always been. Today a generally acceptable rule of thumb dictates 15% of the bill if it is under twenty dollars; less, if the amount exceeds twenty dollars. The 10% gratuity of former days seems to have disappeared with the nickel cup of coffee.
